KANSAS STATE TRAVEL ITINERARY

Kansas State will travel to the Phoenix area directly from Manhattan via charter air service on Monday, December 23. K-State's travel party will arrive in Arizona early that afternoon, and head coach Bill Snyder will hold a brief press conference at Sky Harbor upon arrival.

BOWL WEEK INTERVIEWS

Kansas State players and coaches will first be available to the media on Tuesday, December 24 at the first of two post-practice interview sessions. Please refer to the below schedule/media availability chart for all other media opportunities throughout the week.

PRACTICES

Kansas State will practice at Corona del Sol High School during its time at the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl. Two practice sessions (12/24 and 12/25) will be open to the media for the first 15 minutes and then will be closed for the remainder of the workout. Interviews will also be available following these two practices. Please consult the practice schedule | media availability chart below for specific dates/times.

POSTGAME

K-State's locker room is open following a 10-minute cooling off period per BWWB guidelines. Head coach Bill Snyder and requested players will also be made available to the media at K-State's designated interview location at Sun Devil Stadium.

K-STATE PREGAME PEP RALLY

The K-State Alumni Association, K-State Athletics, Kansas State University Foundation and the President's Office will host a pregame pep rally during the afternoon on Friday, December 27, at a location and time to be determined. President Kirk Schulz, Athletics Director John Currie, K-State football team and coaches, and the K-State band and cheerleaders will all be in attendance. Details regarding the location of the pep rally can be found at www.k-statesports.com/bowlgame. SUN DEVIL STADIUM

Capacity: 71,706
Playing Surface: Natural (Hybrid Bermuda grass)
Lighting: Four banks of quartz-iodide flood lights suspended 200 feet over the playing field.
Stadium Height: 122 feet from playing field to top of grandstand, approximately 12 stories.

Arizona State's Sun Devil Stadium has played host to some of the best football games for more than four decades.

It has hosted Arizona State University football games since 1958. It has hosted five Tostitos Fiesta Bowl national championships and it played host to the 1996 Super Bowl. The stadium was the home of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl for 35 years and the NFL's Arizona Cardinals for 18 seasons. Beginning in 2006, Sun Devil Stadium became the new home of the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

With the south end expansion completed and the press and sky boxes in place, and with an expanded cantilevered upper deck (1977), Sun Devil Stadium boasts a capacity of 71,706.

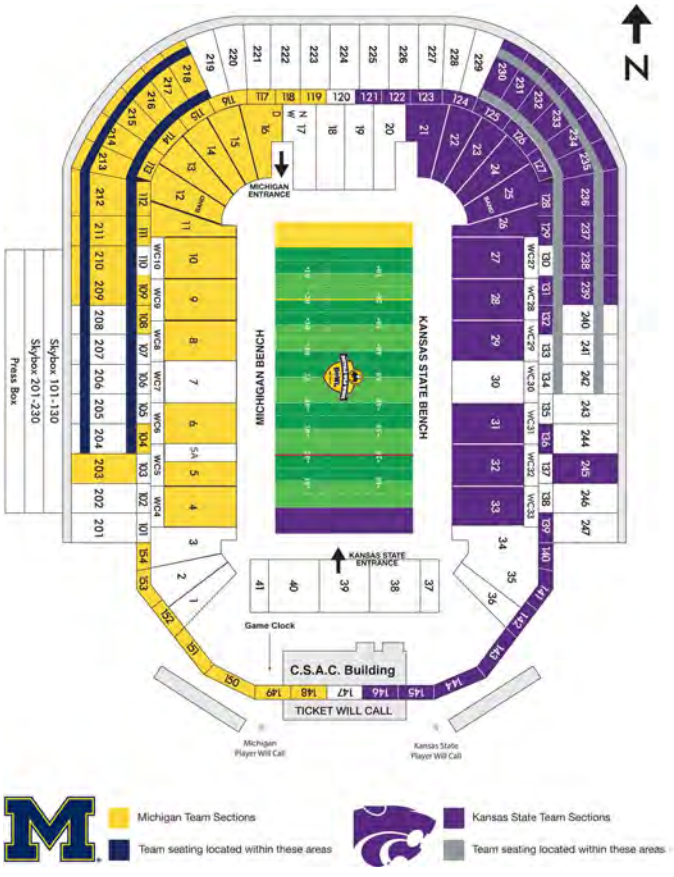
The expansion of 1988 added almost 1,700 seats to the stadium's capacity. Also added was the Intercollegiate Athletic Complex at the structure's south end, which is now named the Nadine and Ed Carson Student Athlete Center. A state-of-the-art scoreboard and four-color video replay board were also added.

During the 1978 expansion, design features enabled the stadium to be modernized without light supports, sound system supports, or construction pillars in the viewing line of the spectators.

The press box and skybox facility, which sits atop the upper deck on the west side, contains two 30-suite levels of skyboxes renovated in 1999 and is topped by the press box and eight additional private suites. The facility also boasts its own television production room.

Served by four industrial-sized elevators – one for the media and three for the public – the facility has working space for more than 200 sportswriters, booth space for broadcasters, statistical crews, scoreboard operations and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for more than 900 fans.

The bowl (south) end was connected by the dramatic ICA Complex and the extension of the loge-level seats. Locker rooms also were added in the north end visiting teams. Two new scoreboards were put in place in 1999. The color video replay system, situated in the southeast corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southwest corner.



THE VALLEY OF THE SUN

TEMPE, ARIZONA

Home to Arizona State University, Tempe contains the energy that you would expect from a college town and the attractions that you'd expect in the perfect vacation destination. Tempe is located in the heart of the Greater Phoenix area, just minutes away from Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport. Visitors can easily experience the beauty of the Sonoran Desert, with Papago Park to the north and South Mountain Park to the south. The city attracts active sports fans and athletes, families looking for a reasonably priced getaway, travelers with ties to the university, fun-loving festival attendees and lovers of visual and performing arts.

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA

In the heart of the Sonoran Desert, light-years from the everyday and ordinary, Scottsdale, Arizona, welcomes you with all the energy of a young city on the move and the charm and hospitality of days gone by. It's a magical blend of contemporary and traditional, urban and open, invigorating and sublime that will inspire you to vacation-induced bliss. Best of all, this Southwestern gem offers vacation experiences that run the gamut from high adventure to pure indulgence, which means your Scottsdale getaway can be as individual as you are.

Sonoran Desert Adventures
With more than 330 days of sunshine each year, any day is a great day to explore Scottsdale's rugged side. Whether you prefer do-it-yourself adventures or guided excursions, the options for exploring Scottsdale's Sonoran Desert are as varied as the landscape itself and include activities like hiking, river rafting, rock climbing, hot-air ballooning, and off -road tours by Jeep, Hummer and horseback.

Upscale Shopping
Scottsdale takes the art of shopping to haute new heights with a bevy of upscale boutiques, open-air shopping centers and quaint souvenir shops. Anchoring the city's stellar retail scene is Scottsdale Fashion Square, the Southwest's largest shopping destination, which houses luminaries like Barneys New York, Neiman Marcus, Jimmy Choo and 7 for All Mankind.

Culinary Delights
Scottsdale's dining scene sizzles with culinary flair and metropolitan style. Home to more than 600 restaurants – from chic to cowboy, spa cafés to speakeasies, not to mention award-winning chefs and al fresco dining all winter long – the hardest question here might be where and whatnot to eat. And for late-night diversions, Scottsdale is home to dozens of sophisticated wine bars, lounges and dance clubs.

CATS AND WOLVERINES MEET IN THE DESERT

K-STATE FACES UM IN BIG 12/BIG TEN SHOWDOWN

Two of college football's most winingest programs over the last two decades will meet for the first time ever as Kansas State takes on Michigan in the 25th annual Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl, December 28, at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Ariz. This year's Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl looks to be one of the more even matchups during the bowl season as both squads finished the regular season with a 7-5 record, average 33 points per game and over 375 yards of total offense in two of the toughest conferences in the FBS this season.

The Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl marks the 17th bowl game in K-State history and the 15th under future Hall of Fame head coach Bill Snyder. The Wildcats hold a 1-1 record in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl, winning the 1993 affair (then Copper Bowl) over Wyoming - the Wildcats' first-ever bowl victory - before dropping the 2001 contest (then Insight.com Bowl). After narrowly missing postseason play in the first season of his second tenure in 2009 (6-6 record), Snyder quickly led K-State back into the bowl picture in 2010 when Kansas State played in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl following a 7-5 regular season. Following a 10-2 campaign in 2011 and a berth in the AT&T Cotton Bowl, Snyder guided the Wildcats to the 2012 Big 12 Championship and a spot in the 2013 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl against Oregon, K-State's second BCS bowl game.

An exciting first-time meeting against two evenly-match teams, the 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl appears on the surface to be one of the most exciting games this postseason.

A QUICK LOOK AT THE WILDCATS

Entering the second half of the season with a 2-4 record and beginning Big 12 play with an 0-3 mark, the chance to advance to a fourth-straight bowl seemed slim for Kansas State. However, a 5-1 record during the second half in which K-State outscored its opponents by an average of 15 points per game and out-gained its foes by an average of 50 yards has led the Wildcats to be one of the nation's hottest teams entering the 2013 bowl season.

The turnaround is of historic proportions as only 7.7-percent (49-of-630) of teams in the BCS era that started the season 2-4 or worse made a bowl apparence, while only three-percent (19-of-630) won at least seven games. In the history of the Big 12, only 4 of 37 teams that started 2-4 or worse played in a bowl game with K-State now owning two of those feats (2001 Insight.com Bowl).

The Wildcats enter the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl ranked 72nd nationally in total offense at 401.2 yards per game but 37th in scoring at 33.4 points per game. K-State is led by dynamic playmakers in wide receiver Tyler Lockett, who ranks 11th nationally in receiving (104.2) and 14th in all-purpose yards (151.4), running back John Hubert, who is fifth in the Big 12 in rushing (80.7), as well as quarterbacks Jake Waters and Daniel Sams. Waters has been true on 59.5 percent of his passes (138-of-233) for 2,198 yards and 15 touchdowns, while Sams has rushed for 784 yards and 11 scores. Lockett earned Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year honors while Hubert was an honorable mention All-Big 12 performer.

On defense, Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year Ryan Mueller leads the charge with a school-record tying 11.5 sacks and 18.5 tackles for loss. Linebacker Blake Slaughter, an All-Big 12 performer, leads the team with 103 total tackles, followed by fellow linebacker Jonathan Truman (85) and another All-Big 12 pick in Ty Zimmerman (69). Along with fellow defensive backs Dante Barnett and Randall Evans, Zimmerman leads the team with three interceptions, including a Big 12-best two that he has returned for touchdowns.

The special teams units have been solid again this season with the Wildcats' punt return unit ranking No. 3 nationally. In the kicking game, Jack Cantele is 11-for-13 in field goals, including a career-long 44-yarder, while punter Mark Krause is averaging 42.1 yards a kick with 15 being downed inside the 20-yard line.

A QUICK LOOK AT THE WOLVERINES

Michigan's appearance in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl will be its first trip to Arizona since a victory in the 1986 Fiesta Bowl over Nebraska. The Wolverines will be making their 43rd all-time bowl appearance and are facing a Big 12 team in a bowl game for the fourth time. Michigan dropped consecutive bowl games to Big 12 foes as they lost to Texas in the 2005 Rose Bowl and Nebraska in the 2005 Alamo Bowl.

Averaging 33.8 points and 382.8 yards per game, the Wolverines are led by Devin Gardner. The quarterback has thrown for 2,960 yards and 21 touchdowns on 308-of-345 (60.3-percent) aim, while he is also the team's second-leading rushing at 483 yards and 11 touchdowns. Gardner's favorite targets have been Jeremy Gallon and Devin Funchess. Gallon has hauled in 80 receptions for 1,284 yards and nine touchdowns to rank just head of K-State's Tyler Lockett at 107.0 yards per game. Funchess has totaled 727 yards on 47 receptions with six touchdowns, while no other Wolverine receiver has carded more than 17 catches. Fitzgerald Toussaint leads the Wolverines in rushing with 646 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Michigan's defense, which is giving up 26.5 points and 367.4 yards per game, is paced by linebacker James Ross III and defensive back Raymon Taylor with 81 tackles apiece. Taylor leads the team with 13 passes defended, including four interceptions. Defensive end Frank Clark has 42 tackles, including 12 for loss and 4.5 sacks. Defensive back Blake Countless leads the team with six interceptions and has 10 total passes defended.

WILDCATS HEADED TO BUFFALO WILD WINGS BOWL

After a 5-1 record over the final six weeks of the regular season, Kansas State received its 17th bowl berth all-time and 15th under head coach Bill Snyder when the Wildcats were selected to meet Michigan in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Ariz.

The Wildcats, behind 2011 and 2012 National and Big 12 Coach of the Year Bill Snyder, wrapped up the regular season with a 7-5 overall record (5-4 Big 12) and finished the regular season as one of the hottest teams in the Big 12 Conference. Kansas State, which will face Michigan for the first time in school history, began the 2013 campaign with a 2-4 mark which included close losses to Texas, Oklahoma State and Baylor. But, the Cats bounced back to gain bowl eligibility by going on a four-game conference winning streak (with wins over West Virginia, Iowa State, Texas Tech and TCU) and closing out the season with their fifth-straight win over in-state rival KU.

BOWLING WITH THE WILDCATS

K-State has made 16 total bowl appearances all-time, with 14 of those coming in the last 19 seasons, heading into this year's Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl. The Wildcats are 6-10 all-time in postseason bowl games, 6-8 under Snyder, and have played 10 different bowl games in the school's history heading into this year's game at Sun Devil Stadium. All told, K-State has traveled to bowl games in six different states, with Arizona (3-Fiesta, 3-Copper/Insight/BWW) and Texas (3-Cotton, 1-Alamo, 1-Texas) being the most frequent destinations.

K-STATE IN ARIZONA

Kansas State, which does not boast any players from the state of Arizona, will be playing its sixth bowl game in the state, including its third trip to the Copper/Insight/Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl. The Wildcats are 2-3 all-time in bowl games in the state with wins in the 1993 Copper Bowl and 1997 Fiesta Bowl.

CATS AND WOLVERINES

Kansas State will face Michigan on the football field for the first time in school history when the two teams meet in the 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

K-STATE AND THE BIG TEN

Kansas State will be playing its 125th game all-time against current members of the Big Ten Conference when the Wildcats face Michigan in the 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl. Prior to this year's bowl matchup with Michigan, K-State's last game against a Big Ten opponent in a bowl game was a 35-28 loss to Ohio State in the 2004 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl following the memorable Big 12 Championship season in 2003.

All time, K-State is 20-101-3 against current Big Ten teams as 95 of those games came against longtime conference foe Nebraska before the Huskers joined the Big Ten two seasons ago. K-State is 0-3 all-time against the Big Ten in bowl games with losses to Ohio State, Purdue and Wisconsin. The Wildcats lead the all-time series with just two Big Ten schools (Indiana and Minnesota).

RIDING THE PURPLE WAVE

The purple Wildcat faithful continues to be one of the nation's top traveling groups of supporters when it comes to bowl season. In addition to a crowd of 40,000 at last season's Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, an estimated 37,000 Wildcat fans swarmed to Tempe, Ariz., to watch Kansas State take on Ohio State in the 2004 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The Wildcats had an estimated 40,000 fans travel to Dallas for the 1997 Cotton Bowl, a figure nearly matched for the 2001 Cotton Bowl. The largest crowd ever to cross state lines to watch a college football game went with the Wildcats to Tempe for the 1997 Fiesta Bowl as nearly 45,000 fans joined K-State for its victory over Syracuse. As a result, K-State has averaged an announced attendance of more than 25,000 fans at each of its bowl games played in the Continental U.S. since 1993.

FROM 2-4...

K-State became bowl-eligible for the 15th time under head coach Bill Snyder with its win over TCU, but even more impressive is how the Cats responded after opening 2-4 this season. In fact, the 2013 Wildcats became just the fourth Big 12 team to turn a 2-4 or worse start into a bowl appearance (2001 K-State, 2002 Oklahoma State and 2004 Iowa State). Looking at this trend nationally, only 7.7-percent of FBS teams in the BCS era have started 2-4 or worse and reached a bowl game through this season (49/630), while K-State is one of only three percent that went on to win seven regular season games the same year (19/630).

IN ELITE COMPANY

One of the longest-tenured active coaches in the nation, Bill Snyder picked up victory No. 175 of his career and No. 100 in conference play at Texas Tech. After guiding K-State from 1989 to 2005, and again over the last four seasons, the 2012 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year and sure-fire hall of famer became the 46th coach ever to reach the 175-win plateau but just the 11th ever to do so at only one school. Additionally, he is only the third coach in Big 8/12 history with 100 conference wins at a single school.

FOURTH-QUARTER DOMINANCE

A big part of K-State's late-season surge in Big 12 play and in 2013 has been the play of the Cats in the last 15 minutes of the game. After averaging just 5.3 points in the fourth quarter over the first six weeks, K-State has scored 72 in the final frame over the last six weeks while holding opponents to just 31.

THE LITTLE THINGS

Sitting at 7-5 overall and 5-4 in league play heading into the bowl game, Kansas State is just a play or two away from being 10-2 on the year. In close losses to North Dakota State, No. 20 Oklahoma State and No. 15 Baylor, the Wildcats held leads late in the games before dropping all three contests in the final minutes. In those games, K-State committed eight turnovers which led to 23 points by the opponent.

THE LITTLE THINGS, PART II

Since starting 2-4, the Cats have continued to get better each day in all phases of the game and have since climbed back to 7-5 with a 5-1 record since. Over the last six games, K-State has forced 18 turnovers, while committing just nine, and the Cats have averaged just five penalties per game. The Wildcat offense has averaged 6.6 yards a play over the last six games while holding its opponent to just a 4.8 clip.

CLOSING STRONG

The Wildcats had another November to remember in 2013, and under head coach Bill Snyder, the Cats have a track record of successful stretch runs. Since 1991 under Snyder, K-State is 51-18 in the month of November, which now includes 16 seasons of winning records in the month (1991-2003, 2011-13) and six seasons with an undefeated final month.

CATS CONTINUE SCORING STREAK

K-State extended one of the nation's longest scoring streaks against Kansas as the Wildcats have now tallied points in 215 consecutive games. The 215-game stretch is the eighth-longest in the nation and the second-longest in the Big 12. The Cats have not been kept off the board since Colorado shut out K-State, 12-0, on Nov. 16, 1996. The streak includes 142 conference games, 78 true road games and 18 neutral-site contests.

DRAWING FIRST BLOOD

Scoring first has been a big sign of good things to come for the Wildcats. Since 1990, K-State's record when scoring first is very impressive as the Wildcats have gone 145-27 (.843) when drawing first blood. Last season, K-State was a perfect 6-0 when scoring the game's first points and is 6-1 so far in 2013.

HALFWAY HOME

There is no better indicator of a Wildcat victory than when K-State leads or is tied at the half. Since 1990, the Cats have protected a halftime lead in 165 of its last 170 (.971) games when leading at the half. Last season, K-State went 10-0 when leading at the half and is 6-0 this season. Also, the Cats have won 39 straight games when leading at the half, which is currently the third-longest active streak in the nation.

PLAYING KEEP AWAY

K-State has been on the positive side of the ledger in terms of time of possession over the last two seasons, ranking fourth (33:56) and 17th (32:03) nationally in 2011 and 2012. K-State, which has ranked in the top two of the Big 12 in each of the last three seasons, including 2013, is 22-7 dating back to 2011 when controlling the clock. The Cats are 7-5 overall this season and have controlled the clock in seven of those games (4-3 record).

THIRD DOWN SUCCESS

K-State was one of the best in the country last season in converting on third downs as the Wildcats ranked second in the Big 12 and seventh nationally by moving the sticks 50-percent (80-of-160) of the time on third down. Kansas State, which improved its conversion percentage by 8-percent from the 2011 season, was able to spread the ball out when it counted most as 11 different players converted on third down in 2012. After converting on just 2-of-10 third downs in the season opener against North Dakota State, K-State has converted on 70-of-140 (.500) third-down chances in its last 11 games and ranks 16th nationally and tops in the Big 12 overall this season at 48-percent (72-of-151).

RED ZONE ALERT

Not only has Kansas State been able to possess the ball and sustain long drives over the course of the last two seasons, but the offense has managed to make the most of those opportunities once it has reached the red zone. Of K-State's last 175 trips inside its opponent's 20-yard line dating back to 2011, the Wildcats have scored on 155 of those trips, with 116 of those being touchdowns. Over the course of the last 34 regular season games, the Wildcats are 144-of-161 in the red zone with 111 touchdowns. Additionally, the Cats are 91-for-110 in red zone chances with 68 touchdowns in their last 21 wins dating back to 2011 with five of those non-scoring trips coming via a kneel down in the final minute of a game.

STEPPING UP THE D

K-State's defense has steadily made improvement each week in 2013, and the late-season performance has played a big role in getting the Wildcats back above .500 at 7-5. After limiting the Baylor offense to half of its average point and yard total, K-State held West Virginia and Iowa State to 19 total points and an average of 308 yards a game. Also, K-State held Texas Tech to under five yards a snap, TCU to 5.4 yards per play, while it has forced 18 turnovers and yielded 19 points and 353 total yards per game over that same six-game span.

PICK ME

When the Wildcat defense picks off two or more passes, K-State usually comes out with a victory. Over the last 29 contests that the Wildcats have recorded two or more interceptions, Kansas State is 24-5, including an 8-1 record over the last two seasons. Ty Zimmerman, who had five interceptions last year, now has 13 interceptions to tie for third in school history and is two shy of the school record. Kip Daily picked off two passes in the Cats' win over UMass, while three different Cats had picks against Iowa State and Zimmerman and Randall Evans had picks against Texas Tech. In the finale against KU, the Wildcats forced four total interceptions, including two by Dante Barnett.

BEHIND ENEMY LINES

In the Wildcats' season opener against North Dakota State, the K-State defense managed to make 10 stops behind the line of scrimmage - which included three sacks - for the first time since the 2012 KU game and the first time in a season opener since 2010. The Cats added seven against UMass, six against Texas, five against Baylor, six against West Virginia and six at Texas Tech as Ryan Mueller (18.5), Blake Slaughter (6.0), Travis Britz (5.5) and Chaquil Reed (4.5) have combined for 33.5 of the team's 66 stops.

NON-OFFENSIVE SCORES

The rise of K-State football over the last three decades has much to do with the emphasis on special teams. Since 1990, Kansas State is 49-16 when scoring on special teams and 19-1 when scoring on special teams and on defense, including a 17-0 mark under Bill Snyder. And, in non-offensive touchdowns, the Cats are the nation's best over the past 14 seasons. Since 1999, the Wildcats rank first nationally in non-offensive touchdowns with 91.

This season, the Wildcats have recorded five non-offensive touchdowns on a Tramaine Thompson kickoff return against Louisiana, interception returns by Ty Zimmerman against Louisiana and Texas Tech, another interception return by Kip Daily against UMass, while Daily also returned a blocked field goal for a score against Oklahoma State. Additionally, K-State's three interception-return touchdowns this season are tied for fifth in school history.

KICK RETURN STREAK

K-State has ranked among the nation's best on special teams under Bill Snyder, especially as it relates to kickoff returns. In fact, following Tramaine Thompson's 94-yard dash against Louisiana, the Wildcats have returned a kick for a score at least once in each of the last nine seasons, which currently ranks as the longest streak in the nation. Louisiana Tech has done so in each of the last seven years, while Auburn and Central Florida currently have streaks of six straight seasons.

BLOCK PARTY

K-State has also made a statement in regards to blocking kicks as the Wildcats currently have the fourth-most blocks in the nation with five, four of which have come by national leader Travis Britz. Britz has blocked three extra points and a field goal, while Weston Hiebert blocked a punt against Baylor.

HOME SWEET HOME

Few teams in college football have taken care of their home field as well as the Wildcats since the start of the 1990 season. Over the past 23 years, K-State is an amazing 129-30-1 (.810) when playing at Bill Snyder Family Stadium, including a 66-4 (.941) record in non-conference games and a 65-26-1 (.712) mark in league games (combined Big 8/12). The Wildcats have gone 27-7 at home since Snyder's return in 2009, including an 18-4 mark over the last two-plus seasons.

RECORD NUMBERS AT SOLD-OUT BILL SNYDER FAMILY STADIUM

A new tradition was born when head coach Bill Snyder returned for his second tenure roaming the sidelines for the Wildcats as the K-State Family Reunion game was introduced for the 2009 season opener. The contest against UMass was a huge success as it was the largest crowd in school history for a home opener at the time with 50,750 fans pouring into Bill Snyder Family Stadium. Fans also came out in droves the last four seasons, including this year's season opener with North Dakota State which drew a season-opening record crowd of 53,351, the second-largest mark to ever watch a Wildcat game in Manhattan.

With a record 43,000-plus season tickets sold and eight crowds of 52,000-plus, K-State set new school records for number of sellouts and total attendance for a season with 423,095 total fans for an average of 52,887. The previous record for total attendance was 384,654 in 2002, while the high mark for average attendance was 51,136 in 1999. Dating back to last season, K-State is riding a streak of 13 consecutive sellouts.

SMART CATS WITH DEGREES IN HAND

K-State has been the Big 12 leader in all-sports graduation rate in four of the past six years, and the same holds true specifically for football as the program has also led the conference in graduation rate over the same time frame. Individually, a total of 21 Wildcats on the 2013 bowl roster have already earned their degrees. Those 21 players include six community-college transfers, while 15 of the 21 have earned starting roles during their careers. The 21 graduates are William Cooper, Kip Daily, Laton Dowling, Ethan Hammes, Marcus Heit, John Hubert, Andre Jackson, Stephen Johnson, Cornelius Lucas, Andre McDonald, Carl Miles, Torell Miller, Dorrian Roberts, Tavon Rooks, Robert Rose, Curry Sexton, Blake Slaughter, Keenan Taylor, Tramaine Thompson, Tre Walker and Ty Zimmerman.

AIR RAID

Jake Waters entered 2013 known for his throwing abilities, and did not disappoint during the regular season. The transfer from Iowa Western CC has totaled 2,198 passing yards to become the 15th player in school history to hit the 2,000-yard mark. He has exploded during the final three games of the regular season by totaling 742 yards, including a 348-yard game against No. 18 Oklahoma which were the most by a Bill Snyder-led quarterback since Michael Bishop had 441 yards against Louisiana-Monroe in 1998. Additionally, Waters enters the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl with touchdown passes of 29, 35, 74, 79 and 90 yards in the last three games. His 90-yard touchdown pass against Oklahoma was the longest since 1998, while his two 70-yard scoring strikes against TCU were the most by a Wildcat quarterback since at least 1970.

Waters' play during the final three games of the regular season skyrocketed him up the nationally rankings as he stands fourth in yards per completion (15.93) and 24th in passing efficiency (151.99), while he ranks second in the Big 12 behind Baylor's Bryce Petty in both categories.

BIG PLAYS VIA THE PASS

Kansas State has shown a penchant for opening up the passing game in 2013 compared to the last two years and that has resulted in more big plays for the Wildcats. Jake Waters and Daniel Sams have teamed for 42 passes for 20 or more yards this year (3.5 per game) after 41 last year and just 26 over the 13-game slate in 2011. Additionally, 17 of those 42 20-plus yard passes have gone for touchdowns this year after only eight in 2012 and five in 2011. In fact, the 17 passing touchdowns of 20 or more yards this season are the most since the 2003 squad also had 17.

BECOMING A DUAL THREAT

Jake Waters has added to his repertoire as the season has progressed with the development of his running game. K-State's third-leading rusher with 270 yards, Waters has six rushing touchdowns, two of which came at No. 23 Texas Tech. Waters' first three scores of the year were all one-yard plunges before a nifty 13-yard score in the second quarter against the Red Raiders. He came back with another one-yard plunge against 23rd-ranked Oklahoma before 15-yard score at Kansas in which he dove and hit the pylon before going out of bounce.

SAMS ON THE RUN

On display last year when he played in late-game situations, Daniel Sams has been a running threat even when teams are expecting it. The 2013 All-Big 12 Honorable Mention selection ranks eighth in the Big 12 and tops among league quarterbacks with 784 yards on the ground. His total included a career-high 199 yards against No. 15 Baylor, while he has three 100-yard games. Sams has also had a nose for the end zone has he has 11 rushing scores this year to tie for fourth in the Big 12 in that department, while he is sixth nationally among quarterbacks.

SAMS CAN

Just like Jake Waters, Daniel Sams has shown that he can be a threat as both a runner and a passer. The Slidell, La., product has completed 73.1-percent of his passes for 452 yards and four touchdowns to rank second in the Big 12 in passing efficiency during league games (156.03), and his season efficiency of 156.09 would rank 16th nationally if he had met the required minimum of pass attempts. Sams' rating is due in large part to an 8-for-8, 93-yard performance with a touchdown against West Virginia, while he went 4-for-5 for 64 yards and another score against Iowa State.

LOCKETT DEVELOPS INTO TOP RECEIVER

Known mainly as a returner his first two years, Tyler Lockett is making more noise this year as a receiver in 2013. The Tulsa, Okla., product has set the K-State single-game receiving record twice, including a 278-yard effort against No. 18 Oklahoma, a mark that ranks fourth in Big 12 history. In fact, K-State has only five 200-yard games in school history and two of them belong to Lockett in 2013.

Thanks to 23 receptions for 444 yards (19.3 per catch) and four touchdowns over his final three regular-season games, Lockett has ascended into the school's single-season top-10 for receptions (4th; 71), yards (4th; 1,146) and touchdowns (t9th; 8). The third Lockett wide receiver to play for the Wildcats (Kevin, father, 1993-96; Aaron, uncle, 1998-2001), Tyler has blown by his father's career best for single-season yards (882 in 1996) and is two receptions away from topping Kevin's season high for receptions (72 in 1996).

ALL-PURPOSE PLAYER

Along with his abilities as a receiver, Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year Tyler Lockett is also an accomplished kick returner and that has come into affect this year as he ranks 11th nationally and tops in the Big 12 with 151.4 all-purpose yards per game, an astonishing 22.3 yards per game better than the player in second place. Thanks to his school-record 278 receiving yards and another 162 yards on kickoff returns, Lockett totaled 440 all-purpose yards against Oklahoma, which were the fifth most in FBS history. He blew past the previous school record of 351 by Darren Sproles vs. Louisiana in 2004 and Brandon Banks against the Sooners in 2009, while his total ranked second in Big 12 history. Lockett has 1,665 all-purpose yards this season to rank eighth in school history, while he is second in K-State history at 4,096.

HUBERT FINDING HIS STRIDE

Following two years of 900-plus yard rushing seasons, John Hubert is now on the cusp of his first-career 1,000-yard season after a career-high 220 yards at Kansas in the regular season finale. Hubert, who has rushed for 968 yards this year, is looking to become the 14th 1,000-yard rusher in school history. Additionally, the 2013 Honorable Mention All-Big 12 pick has 2,913 career rushing yards as he looks to become just the second 3,000-yard career rusher in school history. He is on the brink of those two milestones thanks to the fact that he has averaged 100 yards per game over the final seven regular-season contests after just a 53.6-yard average in the first five games of the year.

The three-year starter has put together an outstanding career and, thus, ranks among the school's best running backs. Hubert enters his finale collegiate game ranked second in school history in career yards, fifth in attempts (583) and sixth in touchdowns (27).

FROM WALK-ON TO STAR

Junior Ryan Mueller, a former walk-on, has come out of virtually nowhere to become one of the elite defensive ends in the country, and he was honored by the league's coaches following the regular season by being named the Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year. The high-motor Mueller ranks sixth nationally and second in the Big 12 with a school-record tying 11.5 sacks, while he is 11th in the nation and leads the Big 12 with 18.5 tackles for loss. Mueller, who has had at least a half TFL in every game and sacks in eight games, registered three sacks at No. 23 Texas Tech to tie for second in school history.

Mueller, who became the first Wildcat with sacks in five-straight games since Ian Campbell in 2006 (6), can attain a few milestones in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl as he is a half sack shy of taking over sole possession of the single-season school record and from entering the Big 12 top-10 list, while he is 1.5 away from appearing on K-State's career top-10 list.

WILDCATS IN THE NFL

K-State had 13 former players on active rosters and one on injured reserve as NFL teams were mandated to trim their rosters to 53 players for the upcoming season over the weekend. Of the 14 players, eight are on offense and six are on defense.

The longest-tenured former Wildcats include Terence Newman (11th year), Darren Sproles (9th year) and Jeromey Clary (7th year).

Three players off last year's Big 12 Championship squad made NFL rosters in second-round pick Arthur Brown, fourth-round pick Chris Harper and undrafted rookie free agent Justin Tuggle. Brown's selection extended K-State's streak of having at least one player taken in the NFL Draft to 20 years. Harper was drafted by Seattle and then signed to its practice squad following the final cut down, but San Francisco signed Harper to its active roster.

Tuggle made the Houston Texans' 53-man roster, marking the second-straight year a Wildcat made an active roster as an undrafted player.

HITTING THE CENTURY MARK

Blake Slaughter, who was a four-game starter in 2010, elected to redshirt the 2012 campaign while playing behind All-American Arthur Brown. Slaughter used the year off to improve and has been outstanding. The All-Big 12 Second Team performer has logged a team-leading 103 tackles, a mark that ranks sixth in the Big 12, while he is the first Wildcat with 100 tackles during the regular season since Josh Buhl in 2003 (171). His total was given a boast in the regular-season finale against Kansas when he carded a career-high 15 tackles, were the most by a Wildcat since David Garrett had 16 at Colorado in 2010.

PLAYING CENTER FIELD

Senior All-American Ty Zimmerman registered his 13th career pick and third of the season at No. 23 Texas Tech, one he returned 43 yards for his second pick-six of the year. A semifinalist for the Thorpe Award, Zimmerman's 13 interceptions are tied for third in school history and fourth in Big 12 history, while he has 221 return yards to rank second on the K-State chart. Additionally, his second return touchdown of the year tied him for third in school history. Zimmerman, who ranks 25th in K-State history with 251 career tackles, has been especially salty against Big 12 teams in his career as 11 of his 13 picks are against conference foes.

EVANS CONTINUES SOLID PLAY

Just like Ryan Mueller, defensive back Randall Evans is a former walk-on who has developed into a playmaker for the surging defense. The junior ranks sixth on the team with 59 tackles and leads the squad with 12 pass breakups, which includes picks against No. 23 Texas Tech and No. 18 Oklahoma. Evans is tied for seventh in the Big 12 in total passes defended, while he is fifth in the conference with 10 in league play.

BIG PLAY DAILY

Senior Kip Daily, who is in his first season as the full-time starter at cornerback, has had penchant for making big plays on both defense and special teams. The College Station, Texas, product had two interceptions against UMass, including one he returned 37 yards for a touchdown, to earn Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honors. Then at No. 20 Oklahoma State, Daily did something that hadn't been done by a Wildcat in over 10 years as he returned a blocked field goal 65 yards for a touchdown to give K-State a 14-10 lead. It was the first score off a blocked field goal since Randy Jordan returned one 93 yards against Baylor in 2002.

CANTELE COMES THROUGH

With K-State trailing by one with less than 10 seconds remaining against TCU, sophomore place kicker Jack Cantele nailed a game-winning 41-yard field goal, which proved to be K-State's first game-winning field goal with less than one minute remaining since Jim Jackson connected on 17-yarder against Colorado on November 22, 1980, in a 17-14 win. Cantele, who was true on four field goals to tie for second in school history, earned his first Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honor for his effort.

Cantele's four field goals pushed his season total to 11 on 13 attempts. He is two field goals shy of moving on to the school's single-season top-10 list, while his 84.6-percent rate ranks fifth in K-State history.

ZIMMERMAN SET SCHOOL RECORD FOR ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS

When Ty Zimmerman's name was listed on the coaches' All-Big 12 first team earlier this month, the Junction City, Kan., product did something that had never been done in the 118 years of K-State Football: be a four-time all-conference honoree. Prior to 2013, only 11 players in school history had earned honorable mention honors or better in three seasons, most of which were sophomore through senior seasons. In addition to the school record, Zimmerman was just the fourth defensive backs in Big 12 history to earn four all-conference honors with at least one of those being a first-team designation.

Zimmerman may not stand by himself for long, however, as juniors B.J. Finney and Tyler Lockett have each garnered three All-Big 12 accolades to open up their careers.

Head Coach
BILL SNYDER

22nd Season at K-State

currently ranked 4th Nationally in Wins among active FBS coaches

Five-Time National Coach of the Year

The 2009 season saw one of the greatest legends in college football return to the sidelines in hopes of revitalizing a program that he once built, piece by piece, into a national force. And, after four seasons back in charge, Bill Snyder has done just that – and then some.

The architect of the "greatest turnaround in the history of college football" Bill Snyder returned to lead the Kansas State football program in 2009 after 17 ultra-successful seasons as the head coach from 1989-2005. And, following a 7-5 campaign in 2010 and a berth in the inaugural Pinstripe Bowl, the Wildcats climbed to heights only previously seen under Snyder as the Wildcats went 10-3 in 2011, finished No. 8 in the final BCS standings and earned their first Cotton Bowl invitation since 2001.

The bar was raised again in 2012 as Snyder led the Wildcats to their third conference championship in school history and first since 2003. Kansas State, which won its first 10 games of the season and finished 11-1 with an 8-1 mark in Big 12 play, tied the school record for overall wins and conference victories while also ascending to No. 1 in the BCS rankings following its 10-0 start. Snyder went on to win the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award as well as top Big 12 coach honors for the second straight season following the Cats' memorable 2012 season that culminated with a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Quarterback Collin Klein became just the second player in school history to be named a Heisman Trophy finalist, while a school-record 20 Wildcats earned All-Big 12 honors including Klein (Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year), Arthur Brown (Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year) and Meshak Williams (Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year).

This season, K-State opened the year 2-4 with all four defeats being by 10 points or less. But Snyder's charges continued to improve each week and went on to become just the fourth team in Big 12 history to bounce back from a 2-4 start to become bowl-eligible. In fact, only 48 FBS teams out of 598 in the BCS era who started 2-4 or worse reached a bowl game prior to the 2013 Cats.

In 2011, Snyder's Wildcats jumped out to a 7-0 start – the best in 12 years – which included big wins at Miami, against 15th-ranked Baylor and at Texas Tech. Following a two-game skid to a pair of nationally-ranked teams, the Wildcats got back into the win column with a thrilling four-overtime victory over Texas A&M before ending the year with wins at Texas and against Iowa State.

For his efforts in 2011, Snyder was named the Woody Hayes National Coach of the Year, as well as picking up national coaching honors from Sporting News, Rivals.com and CBSSports.com, and the Big 12 Coach of the Year by the AP and Big 12 Coaches. He also tutored 11 players to All-Big 12 honors, including Defensive Newcomer of the Year Arthur Brown and Offensive Freshman of the Year and Walter Camp All-Americans Tyler Lockett and Nigel Malone.

In 2010, Snyder's Wildcats jumped out to a 5-1 start, which included big wins over UCLA, Conference USA Champion UCF and Iowa State, behind All-Big 12 running back Daniel Thomas, who became the fastest Wildcat in school history (in terms of games) to rush for 1,000 yards.

In his first season back as the head man of the Wildcat program, Snyder led the Wildcats to a 6-6 record in 2009 and a second place finish in the Big 12 North. In fact, K-State was just one win away from advancing to the Big 12 Championship game as the Wildcats played at Nebraska in the regular season finale with a championship game berth on the line.

K-State claimed more First Team All-Big 12 selections on offense than any other school with four. Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Daniel Thomas led the league in rushing, while Nick Stringer, Jeron Mastrud and Brandon Banks also garnered first team All-Big 12 accolades.

Totals	177-90-1	102-69-1

Named the 32nd head football coach at K-State on Nov. 30, 1988, and again as the 34th on Nov. 24, 2008, Snyder has amassed a 177-90-1 (.662) record during his tenure with the Wildcats, including a 102-69-1 (.596) mark in Big 8/12 games. His 177 victories are more than four times the man in second place on K-State's all-time coaching victories list. But to fully understand the turnaround ushered in by Snyder at Kansas State one must only consider that the Wildcats were in the midst of an 0-26-1 run when he was hired. It also took K-State 51 seasons (1938-1988) to total just 130 wins, while the 12 head coaches prior to Snyder's arrival in Manhattan combined to win just 116 games from 1945-1988.

Snyder led Kansas State to 11 straight bowl berths between the 1993 and 2003 seasons, making K-State one of only seven programs in the nation to appear in the postseason every year during that stretch. During that span, Snyder's Wildcats won nearly 80 percent of their games, chalking up 109 victories - a staggering average of nearly 10 wins per season - and making Kansas State the nation's second-winningest program over that period.

And Snyder continued to break new ground with the Wildcats. Kansas State's 35-7 victory over top-ranked Oklahoma in the 2003 Big 12 Championship game lifted K-State to its first conference championship since Pappy Waldorf's 1934 squad and secured the school's first BCS bowl berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

With an 11-4 record in 2003, K-State was the only team in the country to win 11 games in six of the previous seven years and just the second program in the history of college football to win 11 games six times in a seven-year stretch.

Snyder's unprecedented success in 22 years at Kansas State has not gone unnoticed. He has been named the National Coach of the Year on five occasions (1991, 1994, 1998, 2011 and 2012). He has been a finalist for the prestigious Bear Bryant/FWAA National Coach of the Year Award in 1993, 1995, 2011 and 2012 before winning in 1998; a finalist for the Football News National Coach of the Year Award in 1995 and 1998; and a finalist for the AFCA National Coach of the Year Award in 1993 and 1998.

In 1993, he joined legendary Nebraska head coach Bob Devaney as the only head coaches in Big Eight history to be named Associated Press Big Eight Coach of the Year three times in a four-year period (1990, 1991 and 1993).

Since the inception of the Big 12 Conference, Snyder's Wildcats truly have been a dominant force in the league, ranking in the top three in overall Big 12 wins. Kansas State also won more Big 12 road games than any team in the league during Snyder's first tenure and advanced to the championship game three times.

Those facts alone demonstrate the continuing evolution of a power in the Big 12 and with it the recognition that Snyder is truly one of the finest coaches in college football today.

The list of accomplishments Snyder has amassed in his 22 years is as endless as the time most people thought it would take for the Wildcats to be a consistent threat in the Big Eight, and now, Big 12 Conference.

Like so many in recent history, the 2003 campaign was a dramatically successful one for K-State, which ended the regular season with seven straight wins, a fourth Big 12 North title, its first Big 12 Championship and another top-20 finish.

But the 2003 season was not without its bumps in the road as the Wildcats overcame their share of adversity to produce perhaps the greatest season in school history. Ranked as high as No. 6 nationally in the early going, a key injury to quarterback Ell Roberson precipitated a three-game slide that threatened to wipe out a promising season.

The three losses all but erased K-State from the national consciousness, as the Wildcats slipped out of the both polls for the first time since the second game of the 2002 season. But Snyder was not about to allow the year to spiral out of control. He constantly reminded his players that they still controlled their own destiny, and if they could just go 1-0 each week the season would take care of itself and the team would ultimately achieve its goals.

And like everything Snyder seems to touch, this strategy too worked, as the Wildcats rode their 1-0 mantra week after week all the way to a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Along the way, five different Wildcats were lauded for their efforts with All-America honors, including K-State's first Associated Press first team All-American running back, Darren Sproles, who finished fifth in voting for the Heisman Trophy, was the Doak Walker Award runner-up and finished third on the AP's Player of the Year ballot.

But Sproles was the lone player with star power that returned for the 2004 campaign. And though the little tank produced yet another record-breaking season capped by his third-straight selection to an All-Big 12 team, the lack of experience was one reason K-State struggled through a 4-7 rebuilding campaign.

The 2002 season was one of the best in Kansas State history, witnessed by the Wildcats' five-victory turnaround from the previous year's 6-6 team to a win in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl and an 11-2 overall record.

In addition, the 2002 Wildcats set or tied 45 school records, including tying the mark for wins in a season.

Snyder's Wildcats finished the season with six consecutive victories, including the biggest wins in the history of the series in each of a three-week span against Kansas, Iowa State and Nebraska.

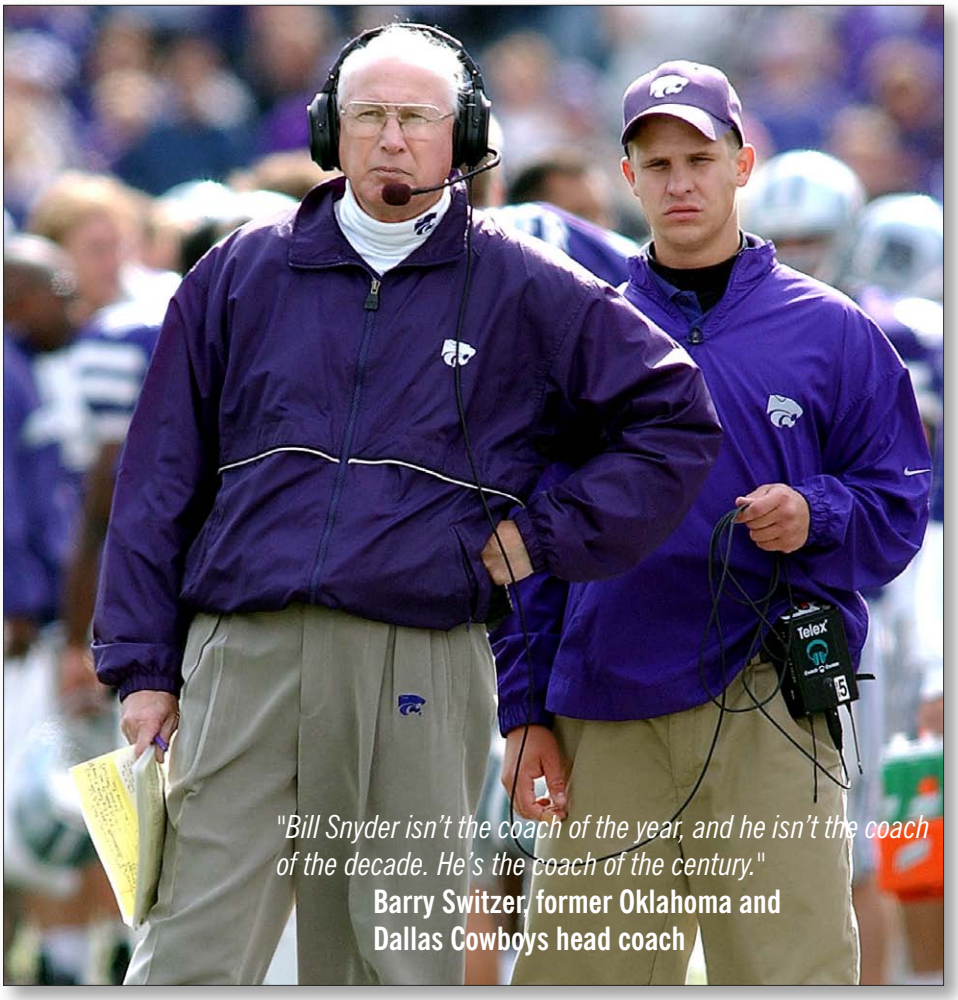
The Wildcats' dominant play down the stretch of the 2002 season earned Snyder the recognition of his peers as the Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year.

In 2001, Snyder directed one of the best in-season turnarounds in school history. Despite losing four straight in the middle of the year and facing the fourth-toughest schedule in the nation, the Wildcats recovered to win four of their last five games to end the regular season with a 6-5 record and a berth in the Insight.com Bowl.

Despite the record, the quality of players produced by the Snyder-led coaching staff continued to attract national attention from those who best know the game.

Six K-State players were selected in the 2002 NFL Draft, the most of any team in the Big 12 Conference, with only six schools in the country having more players picked in the draft.

The Wildcats started the 2000 season ranked in the Top 10 for just the second time in school history and made a four-week run into the Top 5 that saw K-State climb as high as No. 2 in the nation. K-State won the Big 12 North Division for the second time in three years and earned at least a share of the title for the third consecutive season. K-State had six players named first team All-Big 12 by the coaches, and PK Jamie Rheem, DT Mario Fatafehi and WR Quincy Morgan were All-Americans.



"Bill Snyder isn't the coach of the year, and he isn't the coach of the decade. He's the coach of the century."

Barry Switzer, former Oklahoma and Dallas Cowboys head coach

The 1999 season saw the Wildcats climb from No. 20 in the preseason poll to finish at No. 6, after starting the season with nine straight victories, and win 11 games for the third straight year. K-State tied Nebraska for the Wildcats' second consecutive Big 12 North Division Championship. All this came in what many thought would be a rebuilding season. K-State led the conference in first team picks with seven.

In 1998, Snyder led K-State to its second straight 11-win season and a No. 4 ranking in the final regular season polls. In November, K-State occupied a No. 1 ranking in a national poll for the first time in school history. The Wildcats won the Big 12 Conference North Division and advanced to a bowl game for the sixth year in a row. K-State won its first 11 games of the season and ran its winning streak to a school-record 20 games before falling to Texas A&M in the Big 12 Championship game.Quarterback Michael Bishop became the first Wildcat to be a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, and a total of six K-Staters earned All-America honors.

Snyder earned National Coach of the Year honors from the Walter Camp Foundation, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Foundation, the Associated Press, the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award and the Schutt Sports Group.

In 1997, Snyder led the Wildcats to their first 11-win season in school history, a No. 7 final ranking and the first 10-win regular season since 1910. It was just the third 10-win season in 102 years of K-State football. Kansas State won a school-record seven conference games, finishing second in the North to undefeated and national champion Nebraska.

The Wildcats defeated South Division champion Texas A&M, 36-17. The season ended with a 35-18 win over Big East Conference champion Syracuse in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, with an estimated 50,000 K-State fans attending K-State's first-ever Alliance Bowl.

The 1996 season saw K-State finish with a 9-3 record, while more than 45,000 Wildcat fans painted Dallas purple for the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl, K-State's first-ever New Year's Day Bowl. Despite a 19-15 loss to No. 5 BYU, the support and respect for the K-State program grew to unprecedented heights.

In 1995, Snyder guided K-State to a 10-2 record, including a 5-2 Big Eight mark to tie for second place behind national champion Nebraska. Following a 54-21 blitzing of WAC champion Colorado State in the 1995 Holiday Bowl, the Wildcats finished the season ranked sixth in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll and seventh in the Associated Press poll. Both rankings were the highest ever attained by a Kansas State football team to that point.

In 1995, the Wildcats finished tied for second in the Big Eight and their 5-2 league mark gave K-State two consecutive 5-2 Big Eight seasons. In the last three years of the Big Eight, the Wildcats defeated or tied every team in the league except Nebraska. Since the inception of the Big 12 in 1996, K-State is 53-27 in league games under Snyder (10 seasons).

In 1993, Snyder guided K-State to its first bowl win in school history and, in 1994, the Wildcats cracked the Top 10 for the first time in school history. In 1998, the K-State achieved a No. 1 national ranking in one of the major polls for the first time in the program's history.

Individually, Snyder has produced 51 different All-Americans during his 21 years as head coach, including nine consensus first-team All-Americans: in 1992 (P Sean Snyder), 1993 (FS Jaime Mendez), 1995 (CB Chris Canty), 1996 (Canty), 1997 (PK Martin Gramatica), 1998 (PR David Allen), 1999 (LB Mark Simoneau) and 2002 (CB Terence Newman).

Newman became the third Wildcat to win a national award when he was voted the 2002 Thorpe Award, given to the top collegiate defensive back. Gramatica was the 1997 Lou Groza Award winner, the first major award winner in Kansas State history. Quarterback Michael Bishop became the first K-State player to be named a finalist for the Heisman Trophy (finishing as runner-up) while winning the Davey O'Brien Award.

The foundation for K-State's turnaround was laid in 1989 during Snyder's first season in Manhattan. Although the season yielded just a 1-10 record, it became evident to everyone involved in the program that something special was happening. Most important, Snyder instilled a winning attitude and a healthy dose of self-respect and enthusiasm to a program that had been given up for dead.

In 1990, K-State was one of just four teams in the country to improve its record by four games with a 5-6 mark, including its first Big Eight Conference wins in four seasons with victories over Oklahoma State and Iowa State. Snyder again beat those two schools in 1991, while adding Kansas and Missouri to the list of his Big Eight victims to finish at 7-4 for K-State's first winning season since the Independence Bowl season of 1982. Heavy graduation losses on the offensive side of the ball resulted in a 5-6 mark in 1992, but the Cats were still able to hang their hats on their first perfect home season since 1934.

Of course, it should come as no surprise that Snyder would be this kind of architect for a building program. At Iowa, he played a key role in the renaissance of a Hawkeye program that went from 17 consecutive losing seasons to eight straight bowls. Snyder was the mind behind Iowa's potent offensive attack. The Hawkeye offense ranked first in passing efficiency and third in passing yardage nationally in Snyder's last five years of direction. In his final Iowa season, the Peach Bowl team led the Big Ten, and ranked seventh nationally, with 277 passing yards per game. Snyder also served as quarterback coach at Iowa and helped develop some of the best quarterbacks in NCAA history, including NFL players Chuck Long (second in Heisman voting), Mark Vlasic and Chuck Hartlieb, who wrapped up his career as the first Hawkeye to throw for 3,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

Snyder began his full-time coaching career in 1964 as an assistant at Indio High School in California. In 1966 he served as a GA at USC under John McKay before returning to become head coach at Indio High School in 1967. He accepted the same position at Santa Ana Foothill High School in 1969, where he stayed until 1973.

In 1974, Snyder became the offensive coordinator and head swimming coach at Austin College in Sherman, Texas. He joined the North Texas staff in 1976 and helped author an impressive turnaround with a three-year record of 26-7. He left UNT for Iowa in 1979.

During his three-year hiatus, Snyder remained involved with the university and is currently a member of the Missouri and Kansas Halls of Fame, the K-State and Austin College Athletics Halls of Fame while also being inducted into the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. The long-time mentor also is the Chairman of the Kansas Mentors Council and the Kansas Leadership Council, a member of the Board of Directors for Kansas Leadership Center, the Board of Trustees for the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, the KSU Leadership Studies Advancement Council, the Terry C. Johnson Cancer Research Center Advisory Council, the Manhattan Community Foundation Board of Trustees, the KSU Foundation Board of Trustees and is the Honorary Co-Chairman of the Kansas Masonic Partnership for Life.

Snyder, 74, received his B.A. from William Jewell in 1963. He earned his M.A. from Eastern New Mexico in 1965. As a player, he was a three-year letterwinner as a defensive back at William Jewell. Snyder and his wife, Sharon, have two sons (Sean and Ross) and three daughters (Shannon, Meredith and Whitney). They also have eight grandchildren, Sydney, Katherine, Tate, Matthew, Alexis, Gavin, Kadin and Tylin, and one great-grandson, D.J.

One of the nation's top threats as both a receiver and kick returner... Ranks 14th nationally and tops in the Big 12 in all-purpose yards (151.4), 17th nationally and third in the Big 12 in receiving yards per game (104.2) and 24th nationally and third in the Big 12 in receptions per game (6.5)... As a receiver, ranks in the top 10 in school history for season (T2nd; 6) and career (T5th; 8) 100-yard receiving games, season (4th; 71) and career (T5th; 133) receptions, season (4th; 1,146) and career (6th; 2,079) yards, and season (9th; 8) and career (T5th; 15) touchdowns... Also ranks in the top 10 in K-State history for season (8th; 1,665) and career (2nd; 4,096) all-purpose yards, while he is fifth in season all-purpose yards per game... Holds the school record for career kickoff-return yards (1,760), while he ranks second in career kickoff-return average (30.9) and touchdowns (4)... Holds a career 30.9-yard career kickoff-return average to rank second nationally among active players and first in Big 12 history.

Teamed with Tramaine Thompson against North Dakota State to have two 100-yard receivers in a game since 2008... His 111 yards against Louisiana made him the first K-State receiver with consecutive 100-yard games to open a season since 2010... Set a then-school record with 237 yards at Texas, a mark be broke when he went for 278 yards against Oklahoma... His 278 yards against the Sooners are the most in the Big 12 this year and rank fourth in Big 12 history... His 13 receptions against the Longhorns tied for third in K-State history, while his 12 against OU is tied for fifth... Coupled with his 162 kickoff-return yards against Oklahoma, he compiled a school-record 440 all-purpose yards to rank fifth in FBS history... His single-game all-purpose yardage record was 89 yards better than the previous record held by Brandon Banks and Darren Sproles, who broke the NFL single-season all-purpose yardage record in 2011... Also had 333 all-purpose yards against Texas as he holds two of the top-five all-purpose yard performances in the nation this season... Tied the school record with three touchdown receptions against both West Virginia and Oklahoma... Registered a career-long 74-yard touchdown reception against TCU.

A Kansas product who walked on prior to the 2010 season... Was used as a pass-rush defensive lineman the previous two years before a break-out year in 2013... Ranks sixth nationally in sacks and 11th in TFLs, marks that rank second and first in the Big 12, respectively... His 11.5 sacks are tied for the single-season school with another former walk-on, Ian Campbell (2006), and Nyle Wiren (1996)... Is a half sack away from entering the Big 12's single-season top 10 and 1.5 away from appearing on the school's career top-10 list... Also ranks ninth in single-season TFLs as he has the most in a season since 2000 (Chris Johnson, 25.0; Monty Beisel, 19.0)... Has at least a half TFL in every game... Ranks 10th nationally in forced fumbles as he is one away from tying for second in school history... Began the season with three TFLs before setting a career high with eight tackles... Had perhaps K-State's defensive play of the year as he stripped and recovered a fumble on a full-out dive against Baylor quarterback Bryce Petty... Tied the school's single-game sack record with three at Texas Tech.

An athletic quarterback who shined in late-game duty last year before teaming well with Jake Waters in a two-quarterback system... Tied for fifth in the Big 12 in touchdown scoring, while he ranks eighth in rushing... Ranks second in the Big 12 in conference-only passing efficiency (156.2)... Ranks fifth in school history in rushing yards by a sophomore and eighth in season rushing touchdowns by a quarterback... Became the 26th player in school history with 1,000 career rushing yards... Rushed for a 17-yard score against North Dakota State on his first play of the year... Set career passing highs in virtually every category at Oklahoma State... Answered that with a 199-yard rushing game against Baylor, which were the second-most yards by a quarterback in K-State history... Named a Midseason All-Big 12 performer by Phil Steele.

A speedy wide receiver that has been a playmaker both on offense and special teams... Has started 10 games this year while missing two games due to injury... Ranks ninth in school history in career all-purpose yards, while he is 11th in career receiving touchdowns and 12th in receiving yards... Season punt-return average of 20.2 would rank second nationally if he met the required minimum of returns... Ranks fourth in school history in career punt-return average (14.9) and fourth in total yards (717), while he is third nationally among active players in both categories... Teamed with Tyler Lockett in the season opener to have two 100-yard receivers in a game for the first time since 2008... Became the third player in school history to have a rushing, receiving, punt return and kickoff return touchdown in a career when he took the second-half opening kickoff 94 yards for a score... Also narrowly missed a punt-return touchdown when he went 79 yards before being tackled at the three-yard line... Held a streak of four straight games with a touchdown reception, the longest by a Wildcat since 2008.

A versatile athlete who is one of the best quarterbacks in the Big 12... Ranks fourth nationally in yards per completion (15.93) and 24th in passing efficiency... Also ranks third in the Big 12 in passing yards and total offense... Currently ranks third in school history in season passing efficiency and second for a career... Also ranks fourth in passing yards by a junior and seventh in season completion percentage... Is the 15th player in school history with 2,000 passing yards in a season, while he is just 114 yards shy of appearing on the school's single season top-10 list... Needs one touchdown to tie for 10th in school for a season... His 280 yards in the season opener were the most by a Wildcat in a home opener since Dan Manucci vs. Auburn in 1978 (343)... Three touchdowns against West Virginia and Oklahoma were one shy of tying the school record... Completed touchdown passes of 74 and 79 yards against TCU - the latter being the longest pass by a Wildcat since 2005 at the time - as he became the first Wildcat since at least 1970 with two touchdown passes of 70 or more yards in a game... His 348 yards against Oklahoma were the 14th most in a game in school history and the most by a Bill Snyder-led quarterback since 1998... Passing total against the Sooners included a 90-yard touchdown pass, the longest since 1998.

HISTORIC TURNAROUND

For K-State football, the 2013 season saw its share of ups and downs.

A season made up of a little bit of everything – bitter losses, record-breaking individual performances and last-second wins – the team found it within itself to create its own destiny despite what those outside of the Vanier Sports Complex may have said about the Wildcats after a 2-4 start.

Finishing the season with a 7-5 overall record (5-4 Big 12), 2013 will go down among the best turnaround seasons in Big 12 history and the best ever for the K-State football program.

It seems like years ago, doesn't it? K-State Athletics celebrating the opening of the brand-new state-of-the-art West Stadium Center complete with an 11-foot brass statue of Bill Snyder.

Yet, though the day began in celebration it ended in despair with K-State dropping its home opener to none other than North Dakota State University.

'Hang in there, we will come back,' was the message the team seemed to relay to its fans.

But questions remained. Could the dual threat quarterback system work? Where was John Hubert, last season's talented running back who rushed for only 23 yards against North Dakota State? Can this young defense hold its own?

Though the Wildcats went on to defeat both Louisiana and UMass at home, opening its Big 12 season with three straight losses to Texas, No. 20 Oklahoma State and No. 15 Baylor – which ended up being among the best teams in the Big 12 – kept critics talking and fans wondering.

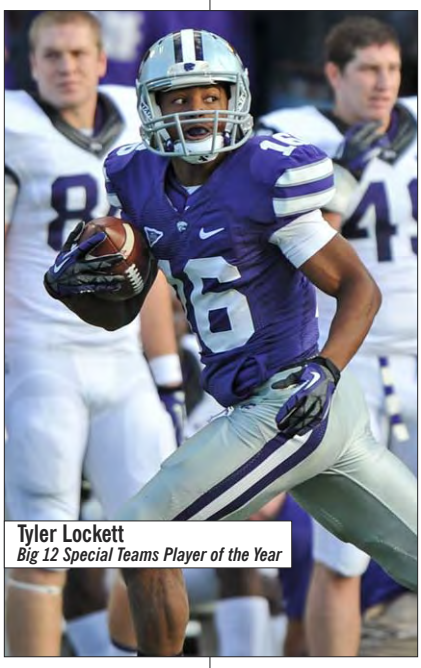
But the Wildcats' Big 12 losses were all so close... fourth-quarter close. A morale victory, perhaps, but in the Wildcats' 35-25 loss to the Bears, K-State held this year's Big 12 Champs to almost 30 points under its season scoring average. Though they weren't wins, the team proved it was growing, and with that, showed the nation the 2013 season would only continue to go up.

Against Baylor the K-State defense shined, and defensive leaders, such as senior linebacker Blake Slaughter and junior defensive end Ryan Mueller, began turning heads.

Slaughter went on to finish the regular season with 103 tackles, leading K-State and were the fourth-most in the Big 12, and earned second-team all-conference honors.

Mueller finished the season with 11.5 sacks to tie the school record and went on to earn First Team All-Big 12 accolades.

Though the season seemed like it was dwindling away after its shaky 2-4 start, a solid defensive effort played a key role in the Cats' four-game winning streak against West Virginia, Iowa State, Texas Tech and TCU.



Tyler Lockett
Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year

On the offensive end of the ball, records were broken – no, shattered – by wide receiver and kick returner Tyler Lockett.

Lockett broke K-State's single-game receiving yard record twice – once when he caught 13 balls for 237 yards against Texas and later against Oklahoma by recording 278 yards.

Along with his exceptional receiving game, Lockett totaled 162 yards on kickoff returns against OU, putting him at a school-record breaking 440 all-purpose yards, the fifth-most in FBS history.

Also writing his name in the Wildcats' record book was senior John Hubert. Perhaps the perfect way to cap off his final regular-season career, Hubert rushed for a career-high 220 yards in K-State's final regular-season contest against the Kansas Jayhawks. Hubert, who is sitting at 968 yards, is only 32 yards short of his long-time goal of 1,000.

For those skeptical of the two-quarterback system, sophomore quarterback Daniel Sams led all quarterbacks in the Big 12 in rushing yards with a total 784 yards while junior quarterback Jake Waters was second in the Big 12 (to Baylor's Bryce Petty) in passing efficiency.

While the two may have spent the season as competitors fighting for the starting quarterback position, nothing but brotherhood shined through to those watching saw Waters and Sams as great friends sharing hugs and high-fives after every offensive drive regardless of who led their team on the field.

And who could forget sophomore place kicker Jack Cantele's 41-yard field goal in the Wildcats' 33-31 victory over TCU? You could feel the tension in Bill Snyder Family Stadium on Nov. 16 as Cantele stepped on the field to take the kick with only three seconds left on the clock. The celebration after he drove in the winning field goal was a moment the team won't soon forget.

Though this season may have started out like no one would have hoped or expected, no one can argue that it hasn't been an exciting year to be a Wildcat. The hard-working Wildcats came back and dug deep within to hang on to their postseason life. It stuck to its "intrinsic values," as Bill Snyder calls them, of hard-work, self-discipline, responsibility, consistency and leadership – to name a few – and will now prepare to take on Michigan in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl, the program's fourth consecutive bowl game appearance.

So after all of that, perhaps Slaughter sums up the season best: "At the beginning of the year, we talked about caring, whether or not this team cared, and we showed the world that we do care. We showed the world that we're going to fight back and continue on. That we care about each other and we are willing to do whatever it takes to make this season special. So to start that way, and to finish this way, it's special to me."

▶ Game Notes

• A capacity crowd of 53,351 attended tonight's game... The sellout crowd was the second-largest in school history and the largest for a home opener... It was also the 16th sellout since head coach Bill Snyder's return in 2009.

• Quarterback Jake Waters made his first-career start on Friday night... He became the first player to enter K-State straight from the community-college ranks and start the season under center since Michael Bishop in 1997.

• Waters finished the night 21-of-29 for 280 yards and two touchdowns and two interceptions... He threw his first-career touchdown pass in the second quarter, a 45-yard strike to Tramaine Thompson, while he connected on a 56-yard touchdown to Tyler Lockett on the third play from scrimmage in the second half... His 280 yards were the most in a home opener since Dan Manucci passed for 343 yards on Sept. 16, 1978 against Auburn.

• Tyler Lockett carded seven receptions for 113 yards and a touchdown... It was his third career 100-yard receiving game.

• Tramaine Thompson joined Lockett with a 100-yard game, totaling 108 yards on six receptions and a touchdown... It marked the first time since the Oklahoma game in 2008 that K-State had two 100-yard receivers (Ernie Pierce - 176, Brandon Banks - 145).

• Kansas State extended its scoring streak to 204 consecutive games on a 45-yard touchdown pass from Jake Waters to Tramaine Thompson... The streak is the eighth-longest in the nation and the second-longest in the Big 12.

K-STATE FALLS TO NORTH DAKOTA STATE, 24-21

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Brock Jensen backed into the end zone for the go-ahead touchdown with 28 seconds left, and North Dakota State upset defending Big 12 champion Kansas State 24-21.

The quarterback led the Bison on an 18-play, 80-yard march that ate up 8 1/2 minutes, helping them convert four third downs along the way, and left the Wildcats with virtually no time left to set up a tying field-goal try.

Jensen threw for 165 yards and two touchdowns for Bison, the two-time defending FCS national champions who have beaten Colorado State, Minnesota and Kansas in the last three years.

Jake Waters threw for 280 yards and two touchdowns for the Wildcats, who built a 21-7 lead by the third quarter before everything fell apart. Waters was picked off twice, including a desperation heave after the Bison had taken the lead to wrap up the biggest win in North Dakota State history.

When the final gun sounded, the Bison raced to midfield to celebrate, and then headed to the corner of the end zone that was painted yellow by their fans - a strong contingent in the crowd of 53,351, the second-largest ever to see a game at Kansas State.

Sam Ojuri had 10 carries for 127 yards, and John Crockett also ran for 50 yards for the Bison. Ryan Smith caught eight passes for 72 yards and a touchdown.

Kansas State struggled early on with Waters under center, punting on its first two possessions and then failing to pick up a first down on fourth-and-3 from the North Dakota State 26. The offense simply couldn't find a rhythm the way it seemed to under Heisman Trophy finalist Collin Klein.

The Bison took advantage of the lull - and a 49-yard punt return by Christian Dudzik - to take a 7-0 lead on Jensen's 5-yard pass to Smith late in the first quarter.

The Wildcats finally got on the board when Waters completed four straight passes, capped by a 45-yard touchdown toss to Thompson early in the second quarter. But both teams squandered chances to seize a halftime lead - Waters was picked off deep in his own territory, only for the Kevin Vaadeland to drop a TD catch and Adam Keller to clang a field-goal attempt off the left upright.

Kansas State threatened to break the game open in the third quarter.

Waters followed a couple short completions with a 56-yard touchdown pass to Lockett, who had run right past Williams to get open. On the ensuing series, backup QB Daniel Sams made his season debut on third-and-3 at the Bison 17 and ran almost untouched for a touchdown that made it 21-7.

North Dakota State was on the ropes when Jensen engineered a 12-play, 75-yard touchdown drive that he capped with a 9-yard pass to Vaadeland. The Bison twice converted short third downs.

Keller atoned for his miss by hitting from 41 yards to make it 21-17 after three quarters.

The Wildcats were still clinging to that lead when North Dakota State got the ball back in the fourth quarter. Jensen methodically led the Bison downfield, picking up a first down at every key juncture, and then used his legs to carry them into the end zone for the go-ahead score.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State scored its first two non-offensive touchdowns of the year, as Tramaine Thompson (kick return) and Ty Zimmerman (interception) each found the end zone... Since 1999, K-State leads the nation in non-offensive TDs with 89... Since 1990, K-State is 50-15 when scoring a defensive touchdown and are 19-1 when scoring on both defense and special teams.

• Tramaine Thompson returned the second-half opening kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown... K-State has now returned a kickoff for a touchdown each of the last nine years, a streak that leads the nation... With the kickoff-return score, Thompson became the third player in school history to have rushing, receiving, punt return and kickoff return touchdowns during their careers (Mack Herron, and Yamon Figurs).

• Daniel Sams rushed eight times for 63 yards and one touchdown... In each of his first two seasons, Sams has recorded at least one rushing touchdown in each of the first two games.

• Running back John Hubert rushed 18 times for 56 yards and one touchdown... He became the ninth player in school history to eclipse 2,000 career rushing yards as he now has 2,024.

• Ty Zimmerman picked off a Louisiana pass in the third quarter and returned it 31 yards for a touchdown... It was his 11th career interceptions, which is tied for sixth in school history... He now has 178 career interception-return yards to rank fourth in school history but was just his first career interception return touchdown.

K-STATE ROLLS THE CAJUNS, 48-27

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Kansas State rebounded in a big way with a 48-27 throttling of Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns in front of a sellout crowd of 53,073 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

A suddenly pass-first Wildcat offense saw its two-headed quarterback attack in junior Jake Waters and sophomore Daniel Sams lead K-State to its first victory of the 2013 season.

Waters, making his second career start, once again shined as he connected with seven different receivers for 278 yards and one rushing touchdown. The community-college transfer became the first K-State quarterback to post back-to-back 250-plus yard efforts to open a season since current Tampa Bay Buccaneer Josh Freeman accomplished the feat in 2007.

The other head of the attack, Sams, was the Wildcats' leading rusher accumulating 63 yards on eight carries to go with 27 yards through the air. His 13-yard touchdown run in the second quarter put the Wildcats up 17-3 and was his second-straight game with a rushing touchdown.

For K-State, the receiving corps played exceptionally well. Junior receiver Tyler Lockett led the team with eight catches for 111 yards – his second-straight game topping the century mark, while wideout Curry Sexton nearly totaled his last year's total for receptions (7) with six for 46 yards. Rounding out the trio was Tramaine Thompson, who had a 94-yard kickoff return score to go along with 46 yards on 2 catches.

The contest was tied early at 3-3, but the Cats poured on 31 unanswered points to make it 34-3. Thompson opened up the second half with a bang with a 94-yard kickoff return for a score to make it 27-3 – K-State's nation-leading ninth-straight year with a kickoff return for a score. He followed up that effort on the next drive with a 79-yard punt return that led to a one-yard plunge by Waters.

Louisiana made things interesting in the second half as wideout Darryl Surgent answered Waters' touchdown with a school-record 100-yard touchdown kickoff return. The Cajuns followed up the return with Dominick Jones picking off an errant Waters' pass and returning it to the Kansas State 17. Louisiana capitalized on the short field as quarterback Terrance Broadway scored from four yards out to make the score 34-17.

Forcing K-State's first punt of the night on the following drive, the Cajuns looked poised to get themselves back into the game. Safety Ty Zimmerman quickly put those thoughts to bed as he turned Broadway's 14th pass attempt of the night into a 32-yard interception return.

Hubert finished the game with 56 yards and two touchdowns as he became the ninth player in school history to reach the 2,000-yard plateau, ending the contest at 2,024 yards.

The teams combined for 824 yards of total offense and nine touchdowns, including two touchdowns on special teams and one on the defensive side of the ball.

▶ Game Notes

• A capacity crowd of 52,958 attended tonight's game... It was the sixth-largest crowd in stadium history... K-State has drawn 159,382 fans for the first three games, which is the most in school history... It was also the 18th sellout since head coach Bill Snyder's return in 2009.

• K-State rushed for a season-high 329 yards... It was the first 300-yard rushing game since compiling 346 against Kansas last year... The Wildcats also had 324 rushing yards in last year's season opener against Missouri State.

• Daniel Sams rushed 11 times for a career-high 77 yards and a touchdown... His third touchdown this season and sixth of his career came on a one-yard sneak on fourth and goal in the second quarter to give K-State an 13-7 lead.

• John Hubert rushed 18 times for a season-high 118 yards... He recorded his eighth-career 100-yard game which is tied for seventh in school history... He also caught two passes for a career-high 50 yards and his second-career receiving touchdown, a 43-yard reception with 11 seconds remaining in the first half... Ironically, Hubert totaled 43 receiving yards over 13 games last year.

• Senior Kip Daily registered a pair of interceptions, including his first career pick in the first quarter that he returned 38 yards a score... Daily's two picks tied for the sixth most in a single game in school history.

• Ty Zimmerman had seven tackles, including one for loss... He became the 51st player in school history with 200 career tackles.

WILDCATS STOP THE MINUTEMEN, 37-7

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Powered by a rushing attack that accumulated 329 yards, including 118 by running back John Hubert, Kansas State romped the Massachusetts Minutemen, 37-7, in front of 52,958 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State's ground game, which had tallied 190 yards total on the ground its first two games of the season, got back on track thanks in large part to a strong game by Hubert as well as another solid performance from quarterback Daniel Sams.

For the second week in a row, Sams sparked the K-State offense by helping the Wildcats to an early 13-7 lead with his 1-yard run on fourth and goal. The sophomore, who finished the game with 77 yards on 11 carries and 89 total yards, accounted for 55 of the drive's 75 yards including a 37-yard scamper to the Minutemen 4-yard line.

The 11-play drive was the beginning of a stretch that saw K-State gain 156 yards on 16 straight runs resulting in two touchdowns to make it 20-7. A 26-yard touchdown run by Robert Rose, his first career rushing score, capped the stretch emphatically.

Hubert, who had a relatively quiet start to his season, topped his season's overall rushing total on just 18 carries while adding 50 yards receiving. The senior halfback's 43-yard receiving touchdown late in the second quarter gave the Wildcats a 27-7 lead going into the half.

The second half started much like the first half ended with the K-State once again hitting paydirt following a UMass three-and-out to make the score 34-7. Jake Waters faked out UMass beautifully by showing run before threading the ball to freshman Glenn Gronkowski for a 50-yard score.

For Gronkowski, it was the redshirt freshman's first career visit to the end zone and the Wildcats' fourth straight touchdown.

Waters, after throwing for over 250 yards in back-to-back games in a combined 60 attempts, finished the game with 115 passing yards and two scores through the air. Sticking with the night's theme, the junior signal-caller added 74 yards on the ground as well.

The Cats would add a 42-yard Jack Cantele field goal in the fourth to make it 37-7.

K-State ended the game scoring 31 unanswered points and tallying 456 total yards. Five different Wildcats registered a rushing attempt against a UMass rushing defense that entered the game giving up 320 yards a game.

Much like last week though, the Wildcat offense started the game slow as UMass held them to a scoreless first and actually entered the second with a 7-6 lead thanks to a 2-yard run by Stacey Bedell. Cornerback Kip Daily, who had two picks on the night, gave the Wildcats their only points of the quarter with a 38-yard interception return on the Minutemen opening drive.

UMass almost added three more in the first, but Travis Britz blocked a 23-yard field goal attempt by Blake Lucas to keep the deficit at one for the Wildcats.

On the defensive side of the ball, the Wildcats held the UMass offense to a lone first quarter score. Despite being on the field for 30:29 minutes, the defense forced two turnovers, five punts and a putrid 5.8 yards per pass attempt. Senior linebacker Blake Slaughter led the K-State defense with 10 total tackles.

▶ Game Notes

• Junior wide receiver Tyler Lockett caught a career-high 13 passes for a school-record 237 yards... He broke the single-game yardage record held by Jordy Nelson, who went for 214 yards at Iowa State in 2007... His yardage total also tied for 10th in Big 12 history... His 13 receptions were tied for second in school history... He carded his eighth-career 100-yard receiving game to tie for eighth in school history with Greg Washington (1988)... His previous career high in receptions was nine at West Virginia last season... Lockett sparked K-State's first scoring drive towards the end of the first half as he caught two passes for 69 yards.

• Running back John Hubert rushed 12 times for 41 yards and two touchdowns... He now has 2,183 in his career to move into eighth place in school history, passing Issac Jackson (2,182; 1971-1973)... He now has 22 career rushing touchdowns to tie for 10th in school history.

• Linebacker Blake Slaughter came away with 10 tackles and his first three career passes defended... He has at least seven tackles in each of the first three games.

• Senior Kip Daily tied his career high with eight tackles.

• Ryan Mueller carded three tackles, including one for a loss.

• Defensive tackle Chaquil Reed made his first-career sack in the second quarter.

• Kansas State allowed season highs in rushing (227) and total (452) yards.

K-STATE'S RALLY FALLS SHORT IN LOSS AT TEXAS

AUTIN, Texas -- Texas running back Johnathan Gray rushed for 141 yards and two touchdowns, quarterback David Ash threw a 63-yard touchdown pass and Texas beat Kansas State 31-21 Saturday night in the Big 12 opener for both teams at Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

Gray became Texas' first 100-yard rusher on the season and Texas' defense, pushed around in two consecutive losses, put up a solid and energetic performance, forcing three critical second-half turnovers.

Ash, who missed the previous game with concussion-like symptoms, passed for 166 yards in the first half but missed the second with a new head injury. Senior Case McCoy took over, leading two touchdown drives.

Running back John Hubert scored two touchdowns and wide receiver Tyler Lockett had 13 catches for a school-record 237 yards for Kansas State (2-2, 0-1 Big 12).

The Longhorns snapped a five-game losing streak in the series, beating the Wildcats for the first time since 2003.

Gray's first touchdown in the second quarter came after he made two dazzling cuts on a 21-yard run. His second put Texas up 24-7 in the third. Malcolm Brown ran for Texas' last touchdown after the Wildcats had pulled within 10 points early in the fourth quarter.

Texas came in as a team desperate to turn around it season. After consecutive losses, Brown urged his team to focus on the Big 12 and trying to win the league crown. The Longhorns, most notably the defense, responded with their most complete game of the season against the defending Big 12 champs.

The defense gave up a huge night receiving to Lockett, but forced the three turnovers that swung momentum early in the second half and preserved the win late.

Ash, who had been cleared to play Friday night, showed no effects of the previous head injury early in the game. But he took several big hits, both on runs and when standing in the pocket, before floating a perfectly-thrown pass to Kendall Sanders for Texas' first touchdown.

Texas went up 17-0 after Ash converted a fourth down with a short pass to Jaxon Shipley to set up Gray's first touchdown. Kansas State responded with its first drive across midfield and Hubert spun through two tacklers on a 15-yard touchdown run with 1 minute left in the half.

Ash was removed at the game at halftime to be evaluated for a head injury and didn't return, putting the game and the job of managing the lead in McCoy's hands. Kansas State fumbled on the first possession of the third quarter and McCoy handed the ball to Gray seven times in eight plays on a 56-yard drive to a touchdown and a 24-7 lead.

Hubert's second touchdown pulled Kansas State within 24-14 early in the fourth. Kansas State had pulled within 10 and was driving for a touchdown when Waters, who ran for a touchdown and passed for 275 yards, fumbled on the Texas 6 with 2:03 left to play.

The Wildcats had one last chance when Tramaine Thompson returned a punt 40 yards inside the Texas 15, but Waters was sacked twice and fumbled with 17 seconds left.

▶ Game Notes

• Daniel Sams went 15-of-21 for 181 and two touchdowns, while he rushed 27 times for 118 yards, setting career highs in both categories... He also set a new career high in attempts, completions and yards, while he threw his first-career TD pass, 67-yarder to Glenn Gronkowski to open the game's scoring.

• Torell Miller hauled in four receptions for 35 yards and one touchdown along with a two-point conversion... He set new career highs in both catches and touchdowns... His TD reception was a 17-yarder to open the scoring in the second half and was his second-career touchdown... Kyle Klein also made his first-career start, catching three passes for 34 yards, his first-career receptions.

• Travis Britz blocked a field-goal attempt and Kip Daily returned it 65 yards for a touchdown... It was K-State's first touchdown on a blocked field goal since Randy Jordan (93 yards) at Baylor in 2002... It was Britz's second block of the year as he had one against UMass.

• Ty Zimmerman set a new career high with 14 tackles... His previous career high in tackles was 12 against Oklahoma State in 2010.

• Kansas State committed 12 penalties for 92 yards... It was the most penalties since committing 16 against Missouri State in 2007 and the most penalty yardage since 99 against Syracuse in the 2010 Pinstripe Bowl... It was also the most by a Bill Snyder-led team since committing 14 at Nebraska in 2005... K-State also committed five turnovers, the most since also committing five against Eastern Kentucky in 2011.

K-STATE FALLS SHORT AT NO. 21 OKLAHOMA STATE, 33-29

STILLWATER, Okla. -- Oklahoma State quarterback J.W. Walsh found Charlie Moore for a 6-yard touchdown pass with 4:13 left in the fourth quarter to help the 21st-ranked Cowboys rally for a 33-29 win over Kansas State.

Walsh finished 24-of-38 passing for 245 yards for the Cowboys, who narrowly avoided their second straight loss after a defeat at West Virginia last week.

After falling behind 29-23 in the fourth quarter, Oklahoma State (4-1, 1-1 Big 12) drove 75 yards in six plays. Walsh was 4-of-5 passing on the drive, including the go-ahead touchdown pass to Moore.

Ben Grogan later added a field goal for the Cowboys, one of four in the game for the freshman.

Daniel Sams accounted for 299 yards of total offense and three touchdowns for the Wildcats (2-3, 0-2). However, the sophomore also threw three interceptions and lost a fumble as Kansas State lost its second straight.

The Cowboys entered the season as the preseason favorite in the Big 12, but their lofty expectations appeared in jeopardy after K-State went ahead 29-23 with 6:09 remaining in the fourth.

The Wildcats did so on a 3-yard touchdown run by Sams, who entered the game having only thrown four passes all season while sharing time with Jake Waters at quarterback.

Sams played the majority of the game on Saturday for Kansas State, finishing 15-of-21 passing for 181 yards and a pair of touchdowns. The sophomore also finished with 118 yards rushing on 27 carries, nearly helping the Wildcats overcome 12 penalties for 92 yards.

Oklahoma State led 17-14 at halftime thanks to a 3-yard touchdown run in the second quarter by Walsh, who bounced back from a difficult game in the loss a week ago to the Mountaineers.

The sophomore's best moment, however, came following the Sams' touchdown that put Kansas State up in the fourth quarter.

Following the score, Walsh opened OSU's drive with completions of 12 and 26 yards to Josh Stewart and Tracy Moore, respectively. After a 16-yard run by Jeremy Smith, Walsh added a 15-yard strike to Brandon Sheperd before capping the go-ahead drive with his touchdown pass to Charlie Moore.

Oklahoma State's Shaun Lewis and Daytawion Lowe followed with interceptions to end the Wildcats' final two drives and secure the win.

Sams put Kansas State up 7-0 in the first quarter with a 67-yard touchdown pass to Glenn Gronkowski, a play on which he faked the run before pulling up and slinging the ball over the middle to the streaking fullback.

The sophomore also found Torell Miller for a 17-yard touchdown pass to put the Wildcats up 21-17 to open the third quarter.

Grogan, who missed a pair of field goals in the loss to West Virginia, answered with a pair of field goals following Kansas State turnovers to put the Cowboys back up 23-21. The freshman connected from 30, 34, 23 and 28 yards out.

▶ Game Notes

• Daniel Sams gained a career-high 199 yards on a career-high 30 carries and threw for 41 yards on 4-of-7 aim... His rushing total was the second-highest by a Wildcat quarterback in school history (Ell Roberson, 228 vs. NU in 2002)... His three rushing touchdowns were the most by a Wildcat since John Hubert had three against Texas in last year's regular-season finale... He now has 10 career rushing touchdowns, including seven this season.

• Ryan Mueller registered seven tackles, including two sacks, and a forced fumble and fumble recovery... It was Mueller's first career forced fumble and his fourth career fumble recovery... Mueller's fumble recovery set up a K-State rushing touchdown.

• Weston Hiebert blocked a Baylor punt in the third quarter, which led to a one-yard Daniel Sams rushing touchdown... It was K-State's first blocked punt since Chris Carney had one in Bill Snyder's first game back in 2009 against UMass.

• Mark Krause punted three times for 143 yards, an average of 47.7 yards... One punt traveled a season-best 50 yards... Two punts were inside the 20, including one punt downed at the Baylor 5 in the second quarter.

K-STATE FALLS SHORT TO NO. 15 BAYLOR, 35-25

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Sophomore quarterback Daniel Sams gained a career-high 199 yards rushing with three touchdowns, but it wasn't enough as Kansas State dropped a 35-25 decision to No. 15 Baylor at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Sams' rushing total was the second-highest by a Wildcat quarterback in school history and the most since Ell Roberson had 228 yards against Nebraska in 2002. His three rushing touchdowns, which gave him 10 in his career, were the most since John Hubert had three against Texas in 2012.

Quarterback Bryce Petty threw for 342 yards and three touchdowns and Ahmad Dixon made a critical interception late in the fourth quarter to run Baylor's (5-0, 2-0 Big 12) winning streak to nine game dating back to last season. The Bears got quality performances from Tevin Reese, who had five catches for 184 yards and two touchdowns, and Antwan Goodley, who added five catches for 139 yards and another touchdown.

The Wildcats (2-4, 0-3 Big 12) took a 25-21 lead in the third. But they missed a tying field-goal attempt in the fourth quarter and then Sams threw an interception on their ensuing possession.

Baylor, playing on the road for the first time this season, had been averaging a nation-leading 779.5 yards and 70-plus points per game. The Bears managed just 451 yards against the Wildcats, while running back Lache Seastrunk was held to just 54 yards on 12 carries.

Petty finished off a grinding 12-play, 59-yard drive by sneaking across the goal line on fourth down to give Baylor the lead. But the Wildcats quickly answered early in the second quarter, when Sams carried eight consecutive times on a 78-yard drive that he finished off with a 1-yard plunge.

Baylor's score-a-minute offense finally got on track midway through the second quarter, and it was a breakdown by the K-State defense that provided the window. Petty hit Reese in stride for a 93-yard touchdown reception, the second-longest scoring pass in the Bears' 115-year history.

The Wildcats answered with a 68-yard drive that they capped with Jack Cantele's 24-yard field goal, but the Bears needed all of two plays and 38 seconds to score again. This time, it was Goodley who hauled in a 72-yard pass from Petty to give Baylor a 21-10 lead heading into halftime.

The Wildcats marched 13 plays on the opening drive of the third quarter and Cantele's 32-yard field goal made it 21-13. K-State quickly forced a Baylor punt, and Weston Hiebert broke through the line and got his hand on it to give the Wildcats prime field position. Sams then scored on a 2-yard plunge, but his 2-point conversion pass was batted away, leaving Baylor with a 21-19 lead.

The Bears gave the ball right back when Petty was stripped by Ryan Mueller while scrambling toward the sideline. K-State took over at Baylor 44 and needed just 12 plays to finally pull ahead as Hubert scored from 2 yards out for K-State's first lead of the game.

Undaunted by giving up 15 straight points, Baylor came right back early in the fourth quarter. Petty hit Reese on a 54-yard scoring strike to give the Bears a 28-25 lead with 14:33 to go.

The Wildcats had chances down the stretch, but Cantele pulled a 41-yard field goal wide left that would have tied the game with 6:49 left. After the K-State defense held, Sams was picked off.

▶ Game Notes

• Tyler Lockett hauled in eight passes for 111 yards and a career-high three touchdowns... His three touchdown receptions tied a school record as he became the eighth player in school history to accomplish the feat... His 111 yards gave him his sixth career 100-yard game to tie for seventh in school history... Lockett's 1,519 career receiving yards ranks 15th in school history.

• Jake Waters made his seventh start of the season, going 10-of-13 for 198 yards and three touchdowns... He set a season-high in touchdown passes with three; which were the most by a K-State quarterback since Collin Klein tossed three at West Virginia on Oct. 20, 2012... Waters added 55 rushing yards on 10 attempts.

• Tramaine Thompson brought in three passes for 53 yards and a touchdown... His touchdown reception was a 30-yarder from Jake Waters in the fourth quarter to give the Cats a 21-12 lead... It was his second TD reception this season and the seventh of his career.

• Curry Sexton hauled in six passes for a career-high 112 yards... In the last three games, Sexton has 15 catches for 205 yards.

• Travis Britz blocked an extra point with 10:05 remaining in the second quarter... It was Britz's third blocked kick of the year, which moved him into a tie for fourth place in school history.

• Quarterback Daniel Sams tallied a perfect day through the air going 8-of-8 for 93 yards and a touchdown... Sams also picked up 16 rushing yards on 14 carries.

K-STATE USES BIG SECOND HALF TO UPEND WVU, 35-12

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- The second half of the 2013 season could have not gotten off to a better start for K-State (3-4, 1-3) as the Wildcats defeated West Virginia (3-5, 1-4), 35-12, for the team's first Big 12 win of the season in front of 52,898 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium on Homecoming.

Snapping a three-game losing streak in the process as well, K-State's offense was fueled, once again, by the two-headed quarterbacking duo of Jake Waters and Daniel Sams. The two signal-callers combined for 362 total yards and four combined touchdowns including 273 yards and three touchdowns in the Wildcats' 28-point second half alone.

The 23-point victory for K-State came despite trailing 9-7 at the half and 12-7 as late as 12:44 into the third quarter. Accumulating only 169 yards prior to a 50-yard field goal by Mountaineer kicker Josh Lambert to make the score 12-7, K-State's offense answered emphatically scoring 28 unanswered points. The scoring drives took a total of 18:58 off the clock with the Wildcats racking up 274 total yards of offense in the process.

Sams kick started the offensive explosion in the initial drive following the Lambert field goal. Leading the Wildcats 78 yards down the field, Sams converted on three third downs including hitting Tyler Lockett in the back of the end zone for a 9-yard touchdown on 3rd-and-goal. Even with the Mountaineers containing him on the ground (14 carries for 16 yards), the sophomore took to the air, finishing the game a perfect 8-of-8 in the pocket for 93 yards and one touchdown.

If Sams was the kick starter, Waters was certainly the closer. The community college transfer put the game away with touchdown passes of 30 yards and 24 yards in the ensuing two drives for the Wildcats. Finding success through both the air and on the ground, Waters finished the game 10-of-13 for 198 yards and three touchdowns through the air, while adding 55 rushing yards on 10 carries.

The game was shaping up to be a defensive battle with neither team giving up much on the ground or through the air. Both teams combined for only 363 yards in the first half with the Mountaineers averaging 5.6 yards per play and the Wildcats averaging 5.68 yards.

The K-State defense continued the trend in the second half of the game, allowing only the Lambert field goal and easily putting in its best effort against Big 12 competition this season. The Wildcats were stifling as West Virginia only converted four of its 16 third down chances and accumulated 110 yards total on its final four drives. The K-State defense also forced three turnovers with two fumble recoveries and a game-ending fourth quarter interception by Dorrian Roberts.

The defensive effort allowed for several Wildcats to shine on offense, which totaled 448 yards for the game. John Hubert continued his strong play of late with 86 yards on 19 carries, adding a late fourth quarter 4-yard score. Lockett, who played a major role on the game-changing third quarter drive, had 8 receptions for 111 yards and three touchdowns. Along with his 9-yard receiving score, Lockett had a 35-yard touchdown in the first quarter and 24-yard score in the fourth quarter.

Rounding a strong effort from the Wildcats receiving corps were Curry Sexton and Tramaine Thompson. Sexton set career-high in receiving yards with 112, while Thompson hauled in three passes for 53 yards, including a 30-yard touchdown reception that made the score 21-12 in the fourth quarter.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State extended its winning streak over Iowa State to six, including four-straight in Manhattan... It was the largest margin of victory in the series since a 45-0 win by K-State on Nov. 8, 2003 in Ames, as each of the previous five games were decided by eight points or less.

• The K-State defense held Iowa State to 249 yards of total offense... It marked the fewest yards allowed by K-State in a Big 12 game since surrendering 243 at West Virginia on Oct. 20, 2012... The 126 passing yards by Iowa State were the fewest by a K-State opponent since allowing 81 passing yards on Sept. 17, 2011 against Kent State.

• John Hubert rushed 15 times for 105 yards - including a K-State season-long 54-yard rush - and two touchdowns... He moved into sole possession of eighth place in school history in career rushing touchdowns (25) and passed Collin Klein (2,485; 2009-12) for fifth in career rushing yards as he now has 2,494.

• Tyler Lockett hauled in five receptions for 72 yards... He moved into the school's top five for receptions and yards by a junior as he now has 44 receptions for 658 in eight games this year... He also moved into fifth place in career all-purpose yards with 3,352.

• Ty Zimmerman finished with seven tackles and an interception... It was his 12th career interception, which moved him into a tie for fourth place in school history... It was also the second-straight season Zimmerman picked off ISU.

DEFENSE STELLAR IN 41-7 WIN OVER IOWA STATE

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Wearning a purple camouflage-patterned Powercat on its helmet to celebrate the annual Fort Riley Day, K-State (4-4, 2-3) turned in a vintage Bill Snyder-coached performance with a 41-7 win over the Iowa State Cyclones (1-7, 0-5) at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. The Wildcats have won its second-straight Big 12 game after starting out the conference slate 0-3.

K-State rebounded from a relatively quiet week on the ground against West Virginia as John Hubert led a rushing attack that gashed the Cyclones for 227 yards on 48 rushes. Hubert, who is now averaging 93.67 yards per game in his past three starts, rushed for 105 yards on 15 carries with two touchdowns.

K-State's offense got off to an exceptional start as Jake Waters started the game for the Wildcats and led a seven-play drive that ended with a 5-yard plunge into the end zone by Hubert. On the drive, the Wildcats' racked up 72 yards in 3:09 minutes and had two plays of 20 or more yards including a 23-yard scamper by Waters to put K-State on the Cyclones' 28-yard line.

Forcing an Iowa State punt on the ensuing drive, K-State's offense took to the field again and promptly marched down the field, cashing in three more points on a 44-yard field goal by Jack Cantele. The five play, 48-yard scoring drive was highlighted by the Cats' longest run of the season, a 54-yard jaunt by Hubert to put K-State in field goal territory.

Play hit a lull after the two quick scores by K-State as the teams traded three-and-outs well into the second quarter. Daniel Sams broke up the minor drought, taking the reins of the offense on K-State's final drive of the first half, leading the Wildcats to take a 17-0 lead.

With three-straight three-and-outs prior to the scoring drive for K-State, Sams accounted for 56 yards of the 12-play scoring drive's 71 total yards. His drive-capping 1-yard touchdown in the final minute of the first half was his eighth rushing touchdown on the season and marked the fifth game this season K-State has had multiple rushing touchdowns in a game.

The second half saw K-State's lead balloon as the defense turned in its second-straight stifling performance. Forcing the Cyclones to punt six times, the Wildcat defense allowed only 249 yards.

Defensive end Ryan Mueller picked up his conference-leading seventh sack on the day to go along with seven tackles, while safety Ty Zimmerman, cornerback Dorrian Roberts and linebacker Dakorey Johnson had interceptions. For the game, Iowa State failed to find any room on the ground or through the air, averaging less than four yards per play.

K-State would add three more touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Sams and Waters combined to engineer an 11-play, 83-yard scoring drive to first give the Cats a 27-0 lead. Waters connected with both Tyler Lockett and Tramaine Thompson for two big-play third down conversions, including a 27-yard hook-up with Thompson to put K-State inside the ISU' 5-yard line on 3rd-and-15. Hubert finished off the drive on the next play with another rushing score, his seventh touchdown of the season.

Sams would later connect with Thompson, who made a sensational grab while being interfered with, for a 28-yard score to give the Wildcats a 34-0 lead. The sophomore quarterback finished the day with 111 total yards and one score on the ground and one through the air, while Waters had 157 yards on 9-of-15 passing, 32 rushing yards and one passing touchdown.

▶ Game Notes

• Bill Snyder carded his 175th career victory to become the 46th coach to ever win 175 career games, but only the 11th to do so at a single school... Additionally, he earned his 100th conference victory to become just the third coach in Big 8/12 history to tally 100 conference wins at a single school... He joined Nebraska's Tom Osborne (153) and Oklahoma's Barry Switzer (100).

• K-State held a 35-10 lead at halftime... It was the most points in a half against a Big 12 opponent since the second half of the 2012 Texas game, while it was the most in a first half against a conference foe since the first half against Texas A&M in 2009 (38).

• John Hubert rushed 23 times for 157 yards and one touchdown... He moved into fourth all-time in career rushing yards, while he moved into a tie for fourth in career 100-yard rushing games... He also moved into a tie for eighth place in career rushing scores with 26.

• Jake Waters rushed eight times for 38 yards and two touchdowns... He had only two rushing scores on the season entering the game, while his first three scores of the year - including his first against Tech - was from one yard out until a 13-yarder in the second quarter.

• Ty Zimmerman carded five tackles, while he intercepted a pass and returned it 43 yards for a touchdown... It was his 13th career pick to tie for third in school history, while it was his second pick-six of the season... He now has 221 interception-return yards to rank second in school history.... He also moved onto the school's career top-25 list in tackles with 249.

K-STATE KNOCKS OFF NO. 25 TEXAS TECH, 49-26

LUBBOCK, Texas -- K-State scored 28 straight points in the first half to carry itself to its third consecutive victory in Big 12 play with a 49-26 win over No. 25 Texas Tech on at Jones AT&T Stadium.

With the win, head coach Bill Snyder became the 46th coach in FBS history to tally 175 wins in a career and just the 11th to do so at one school. He also became just the third coach in Big Eight/12 history to tally 100 conference wins, joining Nebraska's Tom Osborne and Oklahoma's Barry Switzer.

The Wildcats (5-4, 3-3 Big 12) used a powerful running game in the victory against the Red Raiders, totaling 291 yards and five touchdowns on the ground. The defense also came up big with five sacks and three turnovers, including a 43-yard interception return for a touchdown by senior captain Ty Zimmerman in the fourth quarter.

John Hubert posted his 10th career 100-yard rushing game with a team-high 157 yards on 23 carries and one touchdown. With his performance, Hubert moved into fourth all-time in career rushing yards with 2,651.

The two-headed quarterback attack of Daniel Sams and Jake Waters each tallied two touchdowns on the ground to complement Hubert's effort. Sams rushed for 81 yards on 11 carries, while Waters added 38 rushing yards to his 6-of-9 passing attack for 69 yards and one touchdown.

The Red Raiders (7-3, 4-3 Big 12) struck first in the contest, getting a 23-yard field goal from Ryan Bustin to cap a 14-play, 69-yard drive. However, the Wildcats came right back, as Hubert went 63 yards for a touchdown on the team's second offensive play for a 7-3 lead. It marked Hubert's longest run of the season and the longest touchdown run since he went 95 yards for a score in the 2012 season opener with Missouri State.

Texas Tech regained the lead at 10-7 with its first touchdown of the day on a 2-yard pass play from quarterback Davis Webb to Eric Ward with 6:49 remaining in the first quarter.

K-State then rattled off 28 consecutive points to take a 35-10 lead at halftime. During this stretch, the Wildcats got a pair of touchdown runs from Waters and one from Sams before capping the spurt with a 20-yard reception by Tramaine Thompson from Waters just before halftime. The squad had 279 yards at halftime, including 218 on the ground.

The Red Raiders closed the gap to 35-19 with a pair of scores in the third quarter, including a 4-yard TD run from quarterback Baker Mayfield and a 31-yard field goal from Bustin.

The Wildcats responded with a 1-yard plunge from Sams to start the fourth quarter to widen the gap then Zimmerman put the exclamation point on the scoring day with 13th career interception and his second pick-six of the season just 48 seconds later.

Ryan Mueller had three sacks on the day for 19 yards as the win evened K-State's record in Big 12 play to 3-3 after opening league play with three consecutive defeats.

▶ Game Notes

• The victory secured bowl-eligibility for the fourth-straight season... This year's senior class will become the first to go to a bowl all four years since the 2003 senior class capped an 11-year bowl streak... K-State will play in its 17th bowl game with 15 of them coming under Bill Snyder.

• Jack Cantele finished the game 4-of-4 in field goals, including the game-winning 41-yard field goal to give the Wildcats a 33-31 lead... It was Kansas State's first game-winning field goal with less than a minute remaining since 1980.

• Jake Waters threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Lockett in the first quarter, which was the Wildcats' longest pass play since 2008 (Josh Freeman to Brandon Banks vs. Oklahoma), until he hit Tramaine Thompson on a 79-yarder in the third quarter, which was the longest pass play since 2005 (Allan Evridge to Jordy Nelson at Texas Tech)... Waters became the 26th player in school history to eclipse the 1,500-yard passing barrier in a season.

• Daniel Sams carded his third 100-yard game of the year, rushing 19 times for 109 yards and one touchdown... He became the 26th player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in his career, a mark that now stands at 1,019.

• Tyler Lockett hauled in eight passes for 123 yards and one touchdown, which was a career-long 74-yard reception... He moved into third place in school history among juniors with 825 yards on the year, passing his father, Kevin (797; 1995).

CANTELE'S FIELD GOAL LIFTS K-STATE PAST TCU, 33-31

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Jack Cantele kicked a 41-yard field goal, his fourth of the game, with 3 seconds remaining to give Kansas State a thrilling 33-31 victory over TCU.

The Horned Frogs had taken the lead on a 56-yard field goal by Jaden Oberkrom with 2:13 left, but the Wildcats (6-4, 4-3) quickly marched down field. Jake Waters hit Tyler Lockett for 12 yards to convert a third down, and hit him again for 8 more yards to get within field-goal range.

Cantele trotted onto the field, lined up and sent the kick through the uprights, leaping into the air as several Wildcats poured onto the field to celebrate. They were penalized for excessive celebration, but the 15-yard mark-off didn't matter. TCU (4-7, 2-6) couldn't do anything with the kickoff as Kansas State wrapped up its fourth straight win.

The victory made the Wildcats bowl-eligible for the fourth consecutive year, while also ending the Horned Frogs' run of eight consecutive bowl games.

The teams traded punts through a breezy opening quarter until Blake Slaughter picked off Casey Pachall. With a short field, Daniel Sams scooted 11 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead.

Kansas State didn't waste much time adding onto it. After holding the Horned Frogs to three-and-out, Waters entered the game and threw deep down the sideline on the first play of the series. Lockett had put a move on All-American cornerback Jason Verrett and ran open in front of the TCU bench, hauling in the pass for a 74-yard TD reception.

TCU finally got going on a 15-yard touchdown run by B.J. Catalon. But the Wildcats answered with a 51-yard drive that ended with a Cantele field goal and a 17-7 halftime lead.

The Horned Frogs kept momentum going through the third.

Boykin hit Dotson in the back of the end zone from a yard out, and then took advantage of a short field caused by Sams' fumble to carry 7 yards to the left side on fourth-and-1 for the score.

In a game of wild momentum swings, Kansas State quickly took it back. On third-and-14 from the Wildcats' 21-yard line, Waters took advantage of time in the pocket to hit Tramaine Thompson in broken coverage on a 79-yard scoring strike for a 24-21 lead.

Back came TCU, which took advantage of a depleted secondary. Pachall hit David Porter for a 51-yard touchdown pass to give TCU a 28-24 lead late in the third quarter.

Cantele added a field goal to pull within a point, and then Kansas State took advantage of a bizarre penalty to take the lead in the fourth quarter. The Horned Frogs were whistled for having two players wearing No. 2 on the field during a punt, giving K-State a fourth-and-short that was converted by Sams. The drive ended with Cantele kicking a 23-yard field goal for a 30-28 lead.

The Horned Frogs marched to the Kansas State 39 on their ensuing possession, but defensive end Alauna Finau got his hand on Pachall's pass on third-and-5. Patterson decided to send Oberkrom onto the field rather than punt, and his 56-yard field goal had a few yards to spare.

▶ Game Notes

• The attendance of 52,773 helped Kansas State break both the total and average attendance records in school history with 423,095 total fans for an average of 52,887.

• Tyler Lockett made 12 receptions for 278 yards and three touchdowns... He broke the single-game school record for receiving yards, topping his own mark of 237 at Texas earlier this year, while his performance ranks fourth in Big 12 history... His performance moved into the school's top-10 in single-season receptions with 68 (6th), yardage with 1,103 (7th) and touchdowns with eight (T-9th)... His 90-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter was the Wildcats' first 90-yard pass play since Lockett's uncle, Aaron, went 97 yards against Louisiana-Monroe in 1998.

• Lockett also returned five kickoffs for 162 yards as he broke the school's career kickoff-return yardage record, a mark that now stands at 1,760... Lockett's all-purpose total off 440 yards were the fifth most in FBS history and broke the single-game school record of 351 by Darren Sproles against Louisiana-Lafayette in 2004 and Brandon Banks against Oklahoma in 2009.

• Jake Waters set a career high in passing yards and produced the first 300-yard game by a Wildcat since Collin Klein had 323 at West Virginia last season

• Defensive end Ryan Mueller made five solo tackles, including a TFL of four yards... He has at least a half TFL in every game this year.

WILDCATS DOWNED BY NO. 20 SOONERS, 41-31

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Tyler Lockett and Jake Waters piled up school records and career-highs, but it was not enough for K-State as No. 20 Oklahoma secured a 41-31 win at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Tyler Lockett had 12 catches for a school-record 278 yards and three touchdowns for K-State (6-5, 4-4). Lockett carded a school record of 440 all-purpose yards, as he tallied 162 kickoff return yards. His three receiving touchdown catches tied the school record for a single game.

Jake Waters threw for 348 yards and accounted for four scores, but he also threw an interception that the Sooners' Zack Sanchez returned 74 yards for a fourth-quarter score that put the game out of reach. Waters' 348 passing yards were the most since Josh Freeman tossed for 478 yards against Oklahoma on Oct. 25, 2008 and marked the first 300-yard passing game for a K-State quarterback since Collin Klein threw for 323 yards at West Virginia last season.

OU's Brennan Clay ran for a career-high 200 yards and two touchdowns, while freshman quarterback Trevor Knight threw for 171 yards and accounted for two TDs for the Sooners.

The Sooners (9-2, 6-2 Big 12) struck first when Knight hit Sterling Shepard from 12 yards out on third-and-goal in the first quarter, but that was about the last pass that OU called in the first half.

At one point, Stoops called for runs on 17 of 18 plays, including all 14 on a 98-yard TD drive. Clay and Knight did most of the work, with Knight faking a handoff and running untouched the final 8 yards for a 14-0 lead.

While the Sooners were pounding the ball, Kansas State took advantage of the strong north wind at its back. Waters and Lockett took advantage of blown coverage to hook up for the first time for a 48-yard scoring strike early in the second quarter. When the Wildcats got the ball back, Waters found his favorite target with a perfectly thrown 30-yard TD pass in the corner of the end zone.

Oklahoma answered on the ground with Clay scooting to his right and racing past the secondary for a 69-yard touchdown run.

It took all of one play -- a 90-yard pitch-and-catch from Waters to Lockett -- for the Wildcats to make it 21-all. The TD catch also allowed Lockett to match the school record for a single game. This was K-State's first 90-yard pass play since Tyler's uncle, Aaron, went 97 yards against ULM in 1998.

Michael Hunnicutt's field goal in the final seconds gave Oklahoma a 24-21 halftime lead.

As entertaining as the first half was for offensive savants, the third quarter turned into a sluggish affair. Both teams muddled their way to field goals on time-consuming drives.

The Sooners finally seized control when they pinned Kansas State at the 3-yard line early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats went three-and-out, and Mark Krause's punt was held up in the wind. Jalen Saunders caught it on the run and returned it to the 3, where Clay ran it in on the next play.

Oklahoma put the game out of reach moments later, when Sanchez picked off Waters and returned it up the sideline for a touchdown to make the score 41-24 with just over 11 minutes left.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State finished the regular season with a 7-5 overall record and a 5-4 mark in Big 12 play after starting the season at 2-4 overall and 0-3 in league action... The Wildcats are just the 19th FBS team in the BCS era to start 2-4 or worse before battling back to win seven games and earn a bowl berth... Prior to the 2013 season, only 18 of 596 teams (3.02-percent) had accomplished the feat.

• K-State allowed only 223 yards of total offense... It was the fewest yards allowed in a Big 12 game since surrendering only 160 to Kansas in 2003.

• The Wildcats intercepted four Kansas passes, their fourth multi-interception game of the year and the third in the last five games... K-State now has a school-record 350 interception-return yards this year, which bettered the 2002 squad's mark of 339.

• John Hubert rushed 30 times for a career-high 220 yards and one touchdown... It was the first 200-yard game since Daniel Thomas vs. North Texas in 2010 (269) and ranks as the 10th best in a single game in school history... He moved into second place in school history in career rushing yards.

• Defensive end Ryan Mueller recorded six tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss, one sack and one forced fumble... He now has 11.5 sacks this year, which ties the school record.

• Blake Slaughter tallied a career-high 15 tackles, which bettered his career high of 13 against UCF in 2010 and were the most by a Wildcat since David Garrett had 16 at Colorado in 2010.

HUBERT LEADS CATS TO SUNFLOWER SHOWDOWN VICTORY

LAWRENCE, Kan. -- After the way that Kansas State ran the ball a week ago, Bill Snyder decided to make every effort to prove that the Wildcats were still a ground-and-pound kind of team.

No better opponent to ground and pound than its closest rival.

John Hubert ran for a career-high 220 yards, Jake Waters accounted for three touchdowns and the Wildcats beat turnover-prone Kansas 31-10 on Saturday for their fifth straight win in the series.

Unlike last week, when the senior running back had 17 yards in a loss to Oklahoma.

Hubert also had a touchdown run for the Wildcats (7-5, 5-4), who will become the fourth school in Big 12 history to start 2-4 and reach a bowl game when it learns its destination in the coming weeks. The most likely bet is the Holiday Bowl, where Snyder has never lost.

Meanwhile, Kansas (3-9, 1-8) stumbles into the offseason with its fifth straight losing record and few signs that coach Charlie Weis had made much progress in two years in charge.

Jake Heaps threw for 138 yards with three interceptions, while Montell Cozart also threw a pick. The Jayhawks also fumbled twice for a season-high six turnovers.

Waters finished with 160 yards passing, including touchdown throws to Zach Trujillo and Glenn Gronkowski. Waters also ran for a TD while playing almost the entire way, even in a stiff breeze, as run-first quarterback Daniel Sams watched from the Kansas State sideline.

Dante Barnett had two interceptions and recovered a fumble for the Wildcats, while Dylan Schellenberg had a pick and also recovered a fumble while playing for injured safety Ty Zimmerman.

James Sims had 22 carries for 82 yards in his final game for Kansas. Last week, the senior became the first player in school history with back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

The 112th edition of the Sunflower Showdown went very much like the last four editions.

Kansas State needed just three plays to get on the board first. Waters found Trujillo down the seam on an option-pass, and the big tight end rumbled untouched 35 yards for the touchdown.

After the Wildcats forced a punt, it took four more plays to score again. This time, it was Hubert finding a crease and running nearly untouched 21 yards for the score.

Kansas State made it 21-0 moments later when Waters hit his big fullback, Gronkowski, on a 29-yard catch-and-run that closely resembled Trujillo's touchdown catch.

If there was any electricity in Memorial Stadium, it was gone by that point.

Heaps, took over for the ineffective Cozart, finally got Kansas going when he threw an 11-yard TD pass to Jimmay Mundine on fourth-and-2 in the second quarter. Then the Jayhawks took advantage of a fumble on the ensuing kickoff to tack on a short field goal.

Still, Kansas couldn't overcome its abundance of miscues.

Heaps delivered a perfect pass to Mundine in the third quarter that the tight end bobbled into the air and Barnett picked off. Five plays later, Waters fooled the entire Kansas defense by running around the right side for another touchdown and a 28-10 lead.

The Jayhawks were on the march again when Heaps threw a jump ball toward the end zone that Barnett intercepted again. Heaps was picked off one final time by Dorrian Roberts, and Ian Patterson knocked through a 31-yard field goal to put the game away.

▶ Game Notes

• Head coach Jim Dickey elected to redshirt eight seniors during the 1981 season and the move paid off in 1982 as the Wildcats were selected to play in their first ever bowl game.

• The bowl bid wasn't secured until the final game of the season when K-State pounded Colorado, 33-10, to cap a 6-4-1 season and earn an invitation from bowl representatives in the locker room following the win.

• The biggest win of the season came against in-state rival KU when the Wildcats won, 36-7, in the program's first televised night contest... It was the biggest win over the Jayhawks in 27 years.

• Darrell Ray Dickey attempted 35 passes in the 1982 Independence Bowl, a mark that still ranks second in K-State bowl history and sixth in a career.

• Punter Scott Fulhage, whose son D.J. would later punt for K-State, punted eight times in the game to rank second in Wildcat bowl history.

K-STATE FALLS IN 1982 INDEPENDENCE BOWL, 14-3

SHREVEPORT, La. -- Wisconsin quarterback Randy Wright tossed two touchdown passes as the Badgers overcame an early Kansas State lead for a hard-earned 14-3 victory over the Wildcats in the seventh annual Independence Bowl.

The game, played in cold and wet conditions before an announced crowd of 49,523, marked the first-ever bowl appearance by Kansas State. A 23 mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 below zero and kept many fans away.

After a scoreless first quarter, K-State took the game's first lead with 7:10 left in the second period when Steve Willis booted a 29-yard field goal after defensive end Bob Daniels recovered a fumble at the Badger 18-yard line.

The Wildcats' lead was short-lived, however. On Wisconsin's ensuing drive following the field goal, the Badgers marched 79 yards in eight plays, scoring a touchdown on a 16-yard pass from Wright to Michael Jones to give UW a 7-3 halftime lead.

Wisconsin struck again midway through the third quarter, when game offensive MVP Wright connected with Tim Stracka on an 87-yard touchdown pass for a 14-3 Badger advantage.

K-State drove deep into Wisconsin territory on its next two possessions, but was unable to score.

One opportunity ended when a Wildcat pass was intercepted in the Badger end zone, while a second was stymied at the Wisconsin 26-yard line, when K-State could not convert on fourth down.

Darrell Ray Dickey completed 13 of 35 passes for 127 yards and one interception on the game for 1982 Big Eight Coach of the Year Jim Dickey's Wildcat squad.

The 35 pass attempts stood as a Kansas State bowl record until 2004, when Ell Roberson's 51 attempts in the 2004 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl vs. Ohio State.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State, which was ranked for the first time since 1969 by placing as high as No. 18, finished the 1993 season ranks 20th in the final Associated Press poll.

• Approximately 20,000 K-State fans traveled to Tucson, Ariz., for the contest, which would set the stage for nationally-renowned attendance for Wildcat bowl games.

• The 35-point margin of victory still stands as K-State's largest in bowl history, while the 52 points rank second.

• The Wildcats dominated on the ground, out-rushing Wyoming by nearly 200 yards... The 227 yards by K-State on the ground are the third-most in the program's bowl history, while the 36 yards yielded are the second fewest... Additionally, K-State's 502 total yards rank third.

• Current K-State wide receivers coach Andre Coleman caught eight passes for 144 yards and one touchdown while returning two punts for 73 yards and a touchdown that went for 68 yards... He ranks first in school history in bowl receptions, second in punt-return yards and third in receiving yards.

• Running back J.J. Smith carded 133 yards on 20 carries and one touchdown... His rushing total ranks second in K-State bowl history.

• Quarterback Chad May passed for 275 yards and two scores... His 275 yards rank second in K-State bowl history.

WILDCATS WIN FIRST EVER BOWL GAME

TUCSON, Ariz. -- It's probable that not even Bill Snyder could have scripted the events of Dec. 29, 1993, any better as K-State put the finishing touches on one of its finest football seasons in school history with a breathtaking 52-17 total domination of Wyoming.

Wyoming took a quick 3-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal, but the rest, as they say, is history. K-State put its high-powered offense into overdrive and scored on its first three possessions. J.J. Smith put K-State on the board with a two-yard TD run as the Wildcats drove 68 yards in just six plays to take a 6-3 lead. Tate Wright added a 22-yard field goal, and on its third possession, K-State drove 76 yards in only eight plays to take a 16-3 lead on Chad May's two-yard TD plunge.

With 1:07 left in the first half, Wyoming punted deep in its own territory. All-American Andre Coleman fielded the ball at his own 32, sidestepped two defenders and then raced untouched down the far sideline for a touchdown to put K-State ahead 24-10 at the half.

Coleman and company began the second half right where they left off and quickly broke the Cowboys' spirit with a 61-yard touchdown catch just 54 seconds into the third quarter.

Freshman All-American Kevin Lockett then put K-State ahead 38-10 midway through the third quarter with a 30-yard touchdown reception. Reserve running back Leon Edwards later added a 13-yard touchdown run, and cornerback Kenny McEntyre provided the game's crowning moment with a 37-yard interception return for a touchdown with just over six minutes left in the game.

The final numbers were staggering, as the Kansas State offense rolled up 502 yards and averaging 7.5 yards per play.

▶ Game Notes

• The bowl game in Hawaii was K-State's second game away from the continential United States in two years as the Wildcats played Nebraska in Tokyo, Japan, in 1992.

• Joe Gordon's blocked punt is one of only five blocked kicks in Kansas State's bowl history, but is the only punt to be blocked by the Wildcats... The block kick led to K-State's lone score of the game when Chris Sublette recovered the ball in the end zone.

• The seven points scored by K-State were the fewest in its bowl history until the Wildcats only scored three against Syracuse in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl... Additionally, the 124 yards of total offense are the fewest in K-State bowl history.

• Chad May's 31 pass attempts are tied for the third most in Wildcat bowl history.

• May finished his prolific two-year career in the Aloha Bowl, setting numerous school passing records, including single-game passing yardage (489 vs. Nebraska) and second on the school's career passing yardage chart behind Lynn Dickey (6,208).

BC WINS DEFENSIVE BATTLE IN ALOHA BOWL, 12-7

HONOLULU, Hawaii -- Kansas State played Boston College to a defensive standoff much of the afternoon at Aloha Stadium, but the Wildcat offense never got on track and fell 12-7 in the 1994 Aloha Bowl.

The Eagles sacked K-State quarterback Chad May eight times, including a four-hit effort by end Mike Mamula, who was named the game's most valuable player.

Couple that with a ground game that gained just 30 yards and K-State netted just 124 altogether in finishing 9-3.

The Eagles couldn't distance themselves from the Wildcats despite a 51-yard bolt by David Green on the game's second play. That carry led to an early 7-0 cushion for the Eagles but would be the only touchdown of the day.

K-State's lone score came with eight seconds left in the first quarter when Joe Gordon crashed the middle of BC's line and blocked a punt by Jeff Beckley. Chris Sublette recovered the ball on the first hop in the end zone and the game was tied, 7-7.

However, BC would answer with its own end zone patrol later in the half when Mamula applied the biggest of his hits on May for a safety with 2:37 left.

The Wildcats reached the BC 19 on their ensuing drive, but Eric Shorter intercepted a dropped pass in the flat on third-and-15 with 19 seconds left in the half.

Still, a defense that featured punter Eric Hardy, Gordon and a pair of 10-tackle performances from Chuck Marlowe and Mario Smith kept the Wildcats within striking distance until the end.

BC could only tack on a 35-yard field goal by David Gordon with 1:18 remaining in the second half.

▶ Game Notes

• The victory gave Kansas State its first 10-win season since 1910... The victory also put K-State in an exclusive group of only seven Division I-A programs that won at least nine games in three-straight season.

• Kansas State finished the season ranked sixth in the coaches' poll and seventh in the Associated Press poll.

• Kansas State's 54 points and 536 total yards in the 1995 Holiday Bowl remain the school's bowl records.

• Quarterback Brian Kavanagh came off the bench to replace starter Matt Miller and went on to throw for 242 yards and four touchdowns en route to offensive MVP honors... Kavanagh would later be named to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame.

• Defensive MVP honors went to free safety Mario Smith, who had four tackles and intercepted two passes, which is tied for a K-State bowl record and tied for sixth overall in K-State history for a single game... The two picks also tied a Holiday Bowl record.

KAVANAGH COMES OFF BENCH TO LEAD WILDCATS TO WIN

SAN DIEGO, Calif. -- For the second time in three years, Kansas State ran roughshod over the Western Athletic Conference's best as the Wildcats outran, outplayed and outscored Colorado State for a 54-21 win in front of more than 51,000 fans at the 1995 Plymouth Holiday Bowl at Jack Murphy Stadium.

K-State began the scoring on an Eric Hickson 4-yard run with 11:21 left in the first quarter. After CSU responded with a touchdown to knot the score at 7-7, it was all Kansas State.

The Wildcats outscored the Rams, 19-0, in the second quarter by virtue of an interception return by safety Mario Smith and a blocked punt. Brian Kavanagh, who would earn the game's Offensive MVP award, came in for the injured Matt Miller in the second quarter and immediately put the ball in the end zone.

Kavanagh completed 18-of-24 passes for 242 yards and a Holiday Bowl-record tying four touchdowns. The junior signal-caller tossed scoring strikes to Brian Lojka, Tyson Schwieger, Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running.

Including Miller's statistics before he was hurt, the Wildcat quarterbacks combined to complete 24 of 32 passes for 324 yards and four touchdowns.

On the defensive side of the ball, Smith earned MVP honors by picking off two passes, registering two passes broken up, making four tackles and generally creating havoc among the Ram receivers.

The nation's top-ranked defense held the potent CSU offense to 301 yards, while forcing four turnovers.

Individually, Hickson ran for 103 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries, while catching six passes. Running caught six passes for 126 yards and a TD. Freshman punter James Garcia averaged 45.0 yards on three punts.

▶ Game Notes

• Cotton Bowl officials estimate that K-State fans purchased some 40,000-plus tickets, passing the previous record held by Texas Tech in the 1995 Cotton Bowl... Tech's total of 28,232 was surpassed by the Wildcat fans in just a 72-hour period in early December when K-State was tabbed as a participant.

• The Wildcats tallied points for the 63rd time in the last 64 games... The only shutout since a 10-0 blanking by Colorado in 1991 was a 12-0 shutout by the Buffaloes against K-State on Nov. 16, 1996.

• K-State continued its streak of scoring in every bowl game, dating back to a first-ever appearance in the 1982 Independence Bowl against Wisconsin.

• The 1996 senior class finished with its fourth-consecutive season with at least nine victories and its fourth-straight bowl appearance... The seniors compiled a home record of 21-3-1 and an impressive 37-10-1 overall mark, which included a 2-2 bowl record... No other group had put together such an impressive string of bowl appearances, home record and overall record in the 101 years of K-State football.

• K-State fell for the first time when senior quarterback Brian Kavanagh threw at least one touchdown pass, breaking a streak of eight-straight wins.

• Kavanagh's 72-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Lockett was a career best for both players and was also a K-State bowl record... It was the seventh-longest TD pass in Cotton Bowl history.

BYU SCORES 14 IN FOURTH QUARTER FOR COMEBACK WIN

DALLAS, Texas -- An estimated 45,000 Kansas State fans descended on Dallas to watch the Wildcats in their first-ever New Year's Day Bowl and were witness to one of the most exciting games of the bowl season.

After taking a 15-5 lead following a 72-yard touchdown pass from Brian Kavanagh to Kevin Lockett, the Wildcats saw why BYU quarterback Steve Sarkisian was considered one of the nation's best. The Cougar QB tossed two fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead No. 5 BYU to a 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory.

Following Sarkisian's 28-yard scoring strike to Kealaluhi with 3:39 remaining in the game, Kavanagh and Lockett led the Wildcats to a first down at the BYU 12-yard line with around one minute remaining. But, Kavanagh's pass to Jimmy Dean was picked off at the 3-yard line by Omarr Morgan to preserve BYU's 14th win.

The game's first score came when Cotton Bowl Defensive MVP Shay Muirbrook tackled Kavanagh in the end zone for a safety in the first quarter. After the free kick, BYU scored again on an Ethan Pochman 39-yard field goal.

K-State had a hard time getting on track until the final play of the first half. Kavanagh heaved a Hail Mary into the end zone, where, after the ball was deflected by a BYU defender, K-State junior Andre Anderson scooped the ball in for a touchdown. Following the PAT that gave K-State a 7-5 lead, a penalty on BYU forced the teams to return from the locker room so that the Wildcats could try for two points. Mike Lawrence made it pay off by scoring to give KSU an 8-5 lead heading into halftime.

K-State scored its second touchdown of the game when Kevin Lockett bounced off tacklers following a reception on a short slant pattern and raced 72 yards down the left sideline.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State picked up both the Offensive and Defensive Player of the Game awards as quarterback Michael Bishop and linebacker Travis Ochs were honored, respectively.

• Wide receiver Darnell McDonald set a school record with 206 receiving yards as he produced the school's first 200-yard receiving game... His three receiving touchdowns also tied a school record.

• The Michael Bishop-to-Darnell McDonald 77-yard touchdown pass was the longest pass play in Fiesta Bowl history, while McDonald's 206 receiving yards were also a bowl record.

• Quarterback Michael Bishop tied a Fiesta Bowl record with four touchdown passes, while his five touchdowns responsible for also tied a bowl record.

• As a team, Kansas State finished second in Fiesta Bowl history with 457 yards and five touchdowns.

• Tight end Justin Swift came away with career highs in both catches (5) and yards (98).

• With his four passing touchdowns and one rushing score, Michael Bishop threw and ran for at least one touchdown five times during the 1997 season.

• An estimated 32,000 Kansas State fans made the trek to the desert for the Wildcats' first-ever appearance in the Fiesta Bowl.

BISHOP TOSSES 4 TD PASSES IN 35-18 FIESTA BOWL WIN

TEMPE, Ariz. -- Kansas State capped its best season in school history with a 35-18 win over 14th-ranked Syracuse, the Big East champion.

Wildcat quarterback Michael Bishop stole the show by throwing for four touchdowns and completing a career-high 14 passes for a career-best 317 yards.

Darnell McDonald was on the receiving end of seven Bishop passes and turned them into a school-record 206 yards in receptions and three touchdowns. His 77-yard reception in the fourth quarter was the longest in Fiesta Bowl history.

After allowing Syracuse to jump out to a 3-0 lead on the first of Nate Trout's three field goals, Bishop led the Wildcats to three consecutive touchdowns in the second quarter. The first came following a failed fake field goal attempt by Syracuse, culminating in a 19-yard pass to McDonald. Bishop followed with a 12-yard TD dash on K-State's next possession, and wrapped up the first-half scoring with a 28-yard completion to Justin Swift on a tight end screen.

Syracuse scored 12 points in the final 2:18 to close within 21-15 at the half. Following a scoreless third quarter, Bishop and the Wildcats put away the Orangemen with two big plays in the fourth.

McDonald pulled in a long pass along the sidelines, fought off a Syracuse defender and completed a 77-yard TD play, then followed with a 41-yard reception with 3:17 remaining to salt the game away.

Bishop, who earned the Offensive Player of the Game award, finished the contest with 390 yards in total offense, including 317 yards passing and 73 yards rushing. Swift caught a career-high five passes for a career-high 98 yards and one touchdown, while Travis Ochs, was named Defensive player of the Game.

▶ Game Notes

• The Wildcats held the Boilermakers to only 235 yards of total offense, the second fewest by an opponent in K-State bowl history.

• K-State did not score in the first quarter for the first time all season.

• The Wildcats suffered consecutive losses for the first time since 1994.

• Kansas State and Purdue combined for seven interceptions, the most ever in a K-State bowl game.

• Michael Bishop's 88-yard touchdown pass to Darnell mcDonald in the fourth quarter was an Alamo Bowl record... Bishop's three touchdown passes are tied for third in K-State bowl history, but his four interceptions are a record.

• Darnell McDonald hauled in five receptions for 124 yards and two touchdowns... It was the Wildcats' fifth 100-yard receiving game in bowl history at the time, while his two touchdowns are tied for the second most.

• Frank Murphy set a K-State bowl record with 107 kickoff-return yards, a mark that still ranks first to this day.

PURDUE DRIVES 80 YARDS FOR LAST-MINUTE ALAMO BOWL WIN

SAN ANTONIO, Texas -- The unranked Purdue Boilermakers shocked the No. 4 Kansas State Wildcats, 37-34, in the sixth annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

More than 30,000 purple-clad fans cheered the Wildcats on in one of the most exciting bowl game finishes in school history.

After a scoreless first quarter, both offenses finally got untracked, exploding for 71 points over the final three periods.

Unfortunately for K-State, it was the Boilermakers who were the first to get things going, taking a 17-7 halftime lead courtesy of a pair of Drew Brees touchdown passes and a 25-yard Travis Dorsch field goal.

Fumble recoveries in the end zone by both squads and another Dorsch field goal, this time with just four seconds to go in the third quarter had Purdue sporting a 27-13 lead heading into the final stanza.

But the Wildcats put together a furious rally over the final 15 minutes.

David Allen, who rushed for 83 yards on 13 carries, scored from three yards out to get things going before Michael Bishop found an open Darnell McDonald for an Alamo Bowl record 88-yard touchdown strike that pulled the Cats within a field goal at 30-27. Then, with just 1:24 left in the game, Bishop connected with tight end Justin Swift for a two-yard touchdown and a 34-30 K-State lead, its first and only of the game.

Brees then engineered a six-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 24-yard score to Isaac Jones to put the Boilermakers back on top for good at 37-34 with 30 seconds remaining.

Pinned back on its own two-yard line, K-State saw its hopes dashed when Bishop was intercepted to end the game.

▶ Game Notes

• The victory gave K-State an 11-win season as the Wildcats joined Florida State as the only two schools to win at least 11 games each of the three previous years.

• Following the game, Kansas State finished the season No. 6 in the national polls, which tied the 1995 Holiday Bowl winning team for the highest final placing at the time.

• Kansas State improved to 2-0 in the Holiday Bowl following a 54-21 win over Colorado State in 1995.

• Jonathan Beasley threw for 216 yards on 15-of-31 aim while rushing 20 times for 48 yards and three touchdowns... His three rushing touchdowns set a Kansas State bowl game record while carding offensive MVP honors.

• Darren Howard was named the game's defensive MVP after carding nine tackles, including five tackles for loss and three sacks.

• All-America linebacker and future College Football Hall of Famer Mark Simoneau finished his Wildcat career with eight tackles, including three TFLs and a sack.

K-STATE MARCHES 92 YARDS IN FOURTH FOR GAME-WINNER

SAN DIEGO, Calif. -- Kansas State used a stiff defense and three rushing touchdowns by quarterback Jonathan Beasley to defeat Washington 24-20 in the 1999 Holiday Bowl.

Trailing 20-17 late in the third quarter, the Wildcats embarked on a 20-play, 92-yard drive that took 9 minutes, 54 seconds off the clock to score the eventual game-winning touchdown. The drive was set up after senior Lamar Chapman picked off Marques Tuiasosopo.

K-State took a 17-13 lead on its first possession of the second half, scoring on an 11-yard touchdown run by Beasley. The Huskies came back with a 73-yard touchdown drive when Maurice Shaw scored on a five-yard run. That score was the first against K-State in the third quarter during the entire season.

Beasley completed 15-of-31 passes for 216 yards to go with three rushing touchdowns to earn Offensive MVP honors, while Darren Howard was named Defensive MVP after totaling nine tackles and three sacks.

The first half was a back-and-forth affair that saw the Huskies take a 13-10 lead into the locker room.

Washington drew first blood when John Anderson booted a 39 yard field goal just 3:32 into the contests. K-State quickly responded as Beasley drove the Cats 47 yards on the ensuing possession, calling his own number from one yard out to cap the eight-play drive.

Anderson hit on his second of two first-half field goal attempts to pull Washington with in a point heading into the second quarter.

A Jamie Rheem field goal from 41 yards out pushed K-State's lead to 10-6, but the Huskies would put the half's final points on the board on a Pat Conniff three-yard touchdown run midway through the period.

▶ Game Notes

• The Wildcats won consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history thanks to a 24-20 win in the 1999 Holiday Bowl over Washington and the victory over the Volunteers... K-State's previous four bowl triumphs were each preceded by or followed a loss.

• The Wildcats extended their streak of nine or more wins to eight seasons beginning with a 9-2-1 record in 1993.

• Kansas State set a school bowl record with 297 rushing yards and 86 offensive plays, while their 507 total yards was second in bowl history... The Wildcats also tied their bowl record with three interceptions.

• Kansas State finished the season 10-0 when leading at the half after taking a 21-14 lead into the locker room against Tennessee.

• Kansas State's three interceptions marked the 31st time in the last 34 games the Wildcats picked off a pass, while it marked the second-straight game K-State had three interceptions after picking off OU three times in the Big 12 Championship.

• Quarterback Jonathan Beasley, who had the most rushing yards by a quarterback since 1998, set a career high with 98 yards while he was responsible for three touchdowns, including a 14-yard run to open the game's scoring.

• Beasley won the Cotton Bowl Offensive MVP Award, while defensive end Chris Johnson picked up defensive honors... It was Beasley's second-straight offensive MVP honor in a bowl game.

K-STATE EARNS CONSECUTIVE BOWL WINS FOR FIRST TIME

DALLAS, Texas -- Jonathan Beasley threw two touchdowns and rushed for another in leading Kansas State to a 35-21 win over Tennessee in the 65th annual Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic. The victory gave the Wildcats back-to-back bowl wins for the first time in school history.

Beasley, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, had touchdown passes of 56 and 10 yards to Quincy Morgan to key a rally in the second quarter. The touchdown throws, which came three minutes apart, turned a 7-7 tie into a 21-7 Wildcat lead.

Tennessee pulled within seven points before halftime when Jabari Greer went 78 yards with an interception for a touchdown.

But Kansas State got two touchdown runs from Josh Scobey early in the third quarter to regain its cushion. Scobey finished with 147 yards on a career-high 28 carries in the game, the most yards gained in a bowl game by a Wildcat in school history.

Travis Henry 81-yard run late in the game was the final Volunteers' score. Henry finished as the game's leading rusher, gaining 180 yards on 17 carries.

Beasley finished with 210 yards passing on a 13-for-27 performance. He also rushed for a career-best 98 yards on 17 carries. The senior put the Wildcats on the scoreboard first with a 14-yard run late in the first quarter.

Senior defensive end Chris Johnson was the Defensive MVP after leading the Wildcats with four tackles, including two sacks of Tennessee QB Casey Clausen. The Wildcat defense held Clausen to just seven completions and forced three interceptions.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State made its 10th bowl appearance, while it was the ninth-straight postseason appearance... K-State is one of only seven schools to appear in a bowl game each of the last nine years.

• The Insight.com Bowl marked the third time that K-State played a bowl game in Arizona, falling to 2-1.

• Kansas State was held to a season-low 33 rushing yards on 34 carries... It marked just the second time in 2001 the Wildcats were held to less than 100 yards (74 vs. Colorado)... It was the second-lowest rushing output by K-State in a bowl game (-61 vs. Boston College in the 1994 Aloha Bowl).

• The Wildcats held Syracuse to only eight first downs and 222 yards of total offense... It was the lowest number of first downs allowed by K-State in a bowl game, surpassing the previous mark of 12 against Tennessee in the 2001 Cotton Bowl.

• The 222 yards allowed by the Wildcat defense was the sixth time during the 2001 season K-State allowed less than 222 yards of total offense.

WILDCATS SHUT OUT FINAL THREE QUARTERS IN LOSS

PHOENIX, Ariz. -- Syracuse running back James Mungro rushed for 112 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Orangemen to a victory over Kansas State in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl played at Bank One Ballpark.

Mungro scored on runs of 65, 1 and 1 yard to pace the Syracuse offense. The Orangemen added a late touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 52-yard pass from Robin Anderson to Johnnie Morant.

The Syracuse defense did a good job in stopping Kansas State's running offense, which came into the bowl game ranked fifth in the nation. Despite allowing 46 yards on 10 carries to senior Josh Scobey, the Orangemen held K-State to just 33 net rushing yards.

Junior Marc Dunn led the Wildcats with 151 yards passing in relief of starter Ell Roberson. Dunn completed 12 of 25 passes and suffered one interception. Roberson was 2-for-15 for 70 yards for the Wildcats, who were sacked five times by Syracuse.

Mungro opened the scoring on his 65-yard run midway through the first quarter.

Kansas State responded just two minutes later with a 29-yard field goal by freshman Joe Rheem. The drive was sparked by a 47-yard pass from Roberson to Aaron Lockett and a 27-yard carry by Scobey.

Syracuse took advantage of a fumble deep in Wildcat territory early in the second quarter. Mungro scored from the 1-yard line to convert the turnover, but the extra-point was blocked by Josh Buhl.

On the next play from scrimmage, Willie Ford got the first of his two interceptions to set up the Orangemen again. Two plays later, Mungro went over from the 1-yard line again, but Buhl also blocked the extra-point.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State improved to 3-0 in the Holiday Bowl and collected its second straight come-from-behind victory in the fourth quarter.

• The Wildcats posted their largest comeback in a bowl game in school history as they overcame a 13-point deficit near the end of the second quarter... The largest the team had trailed and won in a bowl game was three points on five occasions.

• K-State has scored at least one rushing touchdown in 29 of its last 30 games, while it is riding a 13-game streak of out-gaining its opponent on the ground.

• Quarterback Ell Roberson had three rushing touchdowns to push his season total to 16, which tied for third in school history for a single-season... It also pushed his career total to 25 to place him fourth.

• Roberson earned offensive MVP honors as he tied Jonathan Beasley's bowl record of three rushing touchdowns, which were also at the Holiday Bowl in 1999.

• Running back Darren Sproles rushed 21 times for 118 yards and one touchdown, which was a 41-yarder in the second quarter... He finished the year with 17 rushing touchdown to tie for second place in school history.

• Sproles' 118-yard effort was his 10th overall 100-yard game and his ninth-straight.

• Derrick Evans' game-winning touchdown was his first of the season.

ROBERSON FINDS EVANS IN FINAL MINUTES FOR GAME-WINNER

SAN DIEGO, Calif. -- Derrick Evans caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Ell Roberson with 1:15 left in the game to lift Kansas State to its first and final lead of the contest, as the Wildcats defeated Arizona State, 34-27, in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl.

Evans' catch completed a K-State comeback from deficits of 10-0, 20-7 and 27-20 against the Sun Devils. Roberson, voted the Offensive MVP of the game, rushed for 63 yards, including touchdowns of 32, 3 and 1 yards, and passed for 215 yards by completing 11 of 28 throws.

Roberson's 32-yard score came with just 54 seconds left in the second half and pulled the Wildcats within 20-14. Just 31 seconds earlier, Mike Barth converted on a 39-yard field goal to give ASU its largest lead of the game at 20-7.

K-State tied the game at 20-20 early in the fourth quarter when Roberson capped a 16-play, 65-yard drive with a 3-yard score.

Arizona State quarterback Andrew Walter, who threw for 293 yards on 28-for-57 passing, found Mike Williams for a 10-yard score to put the Sun Devils back ahead on the next possession.

But the Wildcats responded with an 80-yard drive on its next opportunity, setting up Roberson's 1-yard touchdown dive that tied the game again at 27-27 with 6:41 left.

The Wildcat defense forced a Sun Devil punt that Terence Newman returned 27 yards. From there, the Wildcats needed seven plays to cover 59 yards to set up the game-winning touchdown.

Arizona State converted two first downs on its final drive, but Rashad Washington batted down Walter's final pass to preserve the win.

▶ Game Notes

• Despite the loss, Kansas State finished with 11 wins in 2003, marking the sixth time in the previous seven years K-State hit the 11-win mark.

• The attendance of 73,245 marked the largest crowd to ever watch a Wildcat bowl game.

• Linebacker Josh Buhl finished with a game-high 13 tackles, giving him 184 on the season... He ranks first in K-State history in single-season tackles, surpassing Gary Spani, who had 178 tackles in 1977... His 398 tackles rank fourth in Wildcat history.

• Quarterback Ell Roberson threw for 294 yards on a career-high 51 attempts... His 51 pass attempts were 17 more than the school bowl record of 34 held by Darrell Dickey in the 1982 Independence Bowl.

• Darren Sproles carded his 16th rushing touchdown of the season to move into a tie for fourth on K-State's single-season rushing touchdown list... he now has 34 rushing touchdowns and 37 total touchdowns for his career.

• Wide receiver James Terry had four catches for 58 yards, marking the 21st consecutive game he had at least one catch... he finished the season with a K-State single-season record 1,232 receiving yards.

• Cedrick Williams recorded two interceptions to tie a K-State bowl record.

COMEBACK FALLS SHORT IN K-STATE'S FIRST BCS GAME

TEMPE, Ariz. -- Kansas State started slowly but finished with a fury in the 33rd Annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. But it wasn't enough to overcome a 21-point third-quarter deficit as the Wildcats lost a hard fought 35-28 decision to Ohio State in its first ever BCS bowl game at Sun Devil Stadium.

Trailing 35-14 heading into the fourth quarter, Ayo Saba scored from three yards out to cap an eight-play, 46-yard drive and closed the game to 14 points.

Ell Roberson's second rushing touchdown with just 2:47 to go pulled K-State within a touchdown, setting up a frantic finish.

After recovering the ensuing on-sides kick, the Wildcats were flagged for being offsides, forcing a re-kick. This time the Buckeyes recovered at the K-State 36-yard line.

But the Wildcats held and got the ball back with 1:12 to play at their own 10-yard.

A 21-yard completion to Davin Dennis, who finished with a career-high seven receptions for 113 yards, moved the ball to the K-State 26. On the next play Roberson connected with Jermaine Moreira for 26 yards to the Ohio State 48 to get Kansas State within striking distance.

However, Roberson's desperation pass from midfield was batted down at the 2, allowing Ohio State to escape with its second straight Fiesta Bowl victory.

Roberson completed 20 passes on a career-high 51 attempts for 294 yards. His 51 attempts were the most ever by a Wildcat in a bowl game, surpassing Darrell Dickey's 34 in the 1982 Independence Bowl.

Josh Buhl tied a K-State bowl game record with 13 total tackles, equaling Laird Veatch's total from the 1993 Copper Bowl and giving him a K-State single-season record of 184.

▶ Game Notes

• The Wildcats finish the 2006 season with a 7-6 overall record and a 4-4 mark in Big 12 play, giving the Cats their best overall and conference win total since the 2003 season.

• Yamon Figurs' 76-yard punt return for a touchdown in the second quarter was his second this season... The last time a Wildcat player has returned two punts for touchdowns in a season was 2000 when Aaron Lockett had three.

• Figurs now has 553 career punt return yards, which ranks fifth in school history and has averaged 11.5 yards a return, which ranks sixth in school history... His 323 yards this season on punt returns ranks ninth in single-season school history while his 14.7 yard average ranks fourth in single-season history.

• The punt return was also the longest for a K-State player in bowl history and first return for a TD in a bowl since the 1994 Aloha Bowl (blocked punt)... The last time a true punt return went for a touchdown in a bowl was Andre Coleman's 68-yarder in the 1993 Copper Bowl.

• After 129 yards passing against Rutgers, Josh Freeman finished the 2006 season with 1,780 yards passing, which are tied for the 15th-most in K-State single-season history and the most by a freshman.

• With his two field goals, Jeff Snodgrass has 17 this year and 27 for his career... The 17 makes are tied for the fourth-most in school history while his 27 career makes rank seventh in school history.

RUTGERS TOO MUCH IN INAUGURAL TEXAS BOWL

HOUSTON, Texas -- Kansas State hung with No. 16 Rutgers for 30 minutes, but the Scarlet Knights scored 20 unanswered points in the second half to hand the Wildcats a 37-10 loss in the inaugural Texas Bowl before 52,210 fans at Reliant Stadium.

Rutgers was as good as advertised and kept K-State off balance all night long.

Ray Rice, the Texas Bowl MVP, rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown and Tim Brown caught two TD passes, for the Scarlet Knights, who claimed their first bowl victory in 137 seasons of intercollegiate football.

Brown's two TD catches came in the opening period and staked Rutgers to a quick 14-0 lead.

K-State answered with a 44-yard field goal by Jeff Snodgrass - his 17th of the season - and a 76-yard punt return for a touchdown by Yamon Figurs that was the longest in K-State bowl history to close the gap to 14-10 midway through the second quarter.

But Jeremy Ito connected on a 37-yard field goal to close the half and linebacker Quintero Frierson returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage of the second half to put Rutgers comfortably ahead 24-10.

Rice sprinted 46-yards for his lone touchdown of the game on the Scarlet Knights' next possession before Ito closed out the scoring with a pair of fourth-quarter field goals to provide the final margin.

The Scarlet Knights' seventh-ranked defense proved to be too much and held Kansas State at bay all game long. The Wildcats mustered just 162 yards of total offense for its second fewest yards in a bowl game.

Junior wide receiver Jordy Nelson led the Wildcat receivers, hauling in four receptions for 81 yards.

On defense, senior linebacker Brandon Archer led all players with nine total tackles to finish his career with 268 stops for the 17th-most in school history.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State played in just its third game in the state of New York, falling to 0-2-1 in the Empire State.

• Running back Daniel Thomas rushed 22 times for 90 yards and three touchdown, collecting his second career three-score game... He finished his senior season with 298 carries and 545 for his career, which rank second and third, respectively... His final rushing total in 2010 was 1,585 yards to rank second in school history, while his 2,850 career rushing yards are also second... He passed Ell Roberson (2,818; 2000-03) for second in career rushing yards... He is also second in a season (19) and fourth in a career (30) in touchdowns.

• Chris Harper finished the contest with five receptions for 56 yards and one touchdown... He has now caught a touchdown in three straight games after grabbing one at Colorado and North Texas... Senior receiver Adrian Hilburn also had five grabs for a career high 84 yards and one score.

• Junior David Garrett carded six tackles, including two for loss... He ended the season with 15.0 TFLs, the most since Ian Campbell had 17.5 in 2006.

• Defensive back Tysyn Hartman carded 10 tackles on the evening, his second double-digit tackle game and two shy of his career high of 12 earlier this season against Oklahoma State.

K-STATE FALLS LATE IN FIRST EVER PINSTRIPE BOWL

BRONX, N.Y. -- The first Pinstripe Bowl turned into a home run derby.

Delone Carter ran for 198 yards and two touchdowns, Marcus Sales caught three long TD passes and Syracuse got some help from a celebration penalty on Kansas State to beat the Wildcats 36-34 at Yankee Stadium.

Adrian Hilburn slipped a tackle and raced to a 30-yard touchdown catch with 1:13 remaining to pull Kansas State within two. Hilburn saluted the crowd behind the visitor's dugout and was flagged 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct, which pushed the 2-point conversion attempt back to the 17-yard line.

Carson Coffman overthrew Aubrey Quarles in the end zone, and when K-State couldn't come up with the onside kick, Syracuse only had to take a knee to win a bowl game for the first time since 2001.

Daniel Thomas ran for three touchdowns for Kansas State, which was making its first bowl appearance since 2006.

In a bowl season filled with blowouts so far, the first bowl game in New York in 48 years turned out to be a hit.

The teams traded big plays right from the start - Thomas went 51 yards for a score on the second play from scrimmage - and scored touchdowns on the first five second-half possessions.

Kansas State coach Bill Snyder, sensing field goals would not be enough, called for a fake with about five minutes left in the fourth from the 10, but Syracuse stacked up Ryan Doerr on the run.

Carter, who scored two second-half touchdowns, broke free for a 60-yard run on the next play. It set up Ross Krautman's 40-yard field goal with 3:08 left that made it 36-28.

Coffman, who played brilliantly in his last college game, led the Wildcats into Syracuse territory and connected with Hilburn near the sideline about 10 yards down field. After winning a footrace to the end zone, he dropped the ball, did a quick salute and turned to celebrate with his teammates.

The flags came flying and the 2-point attempt turned into a desperation play.

▶ Game Notes

• Despite the loss, Kansas State still had a 10-win season for just the ninth time in school history, including the eighth under head coach Bill Snyder... It was the first season with at least 10 wins since 2003.

• The announced attendance was 80,956, the largest for a K-State bowl game... Of that announced attendance, approximately 35,000 were K-State fans, which tied for the fourth most for a bowl game in school history... Additionally, the announced attendance was the 10th largest to see a K-State game in school history.

• Collin Klein notched his 15th career start under center, going 16-of-30 through the air for 173 yards and a touchdown... He also rushed 24 times for 42 yards and a score... His rushing touchdown gave him 27 this season, which tied the Big 12 (Texas' Ricky Williams in 1998) and FBS quarterback (Navy's Ricky Dobbs in 2009) single-season records... He finished the year with 317 rushing attempts, which were the most in school history... Klein's rushing yardage total in 2011 (1,141) ranked seventh in school history.

• Arthur Brown recorded six tackles, giving him 101 on the year... He was the first Wildcat to notched a 100-tackle season since Brandon Archer had 106 in 2006.

• Raphael Guidry blocked his fifth kick of 2011, which set a new single-season school record... His five blocked kicks are also the school's career record... His blocked PAT led to K-State's first defensive extra point in nearly 10 years.

CATS COME UP SHORT IN COTTON BOWL LOSS TO ARKANSAS

ARLINGTON, Texas -- Kansas State quarterback Collin Klein tied the Big 12 single-season for rushing touchdowns and the NCAA single season record by a quarterback but the No. 8 Wildcats came up short in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic in a 29-16 loss to No. 6 Arkansas.

Kansas State (10-3) was trying to match its school record with 11 victories, but still finished a surprising season in Snyder's second Wildcats turnaround. K-State won 11 games six times during a seven-year span in Snyder's first tenure before his three-year retirement, and almost reached that mark again in his third season back.

After being held to 15 yards on 12 carries in the first half, Klein finished the opening drive of the third quarter with a 6-yard TD run that got the Wildcats to 19-16. That came after Klein had a 15-yard run on the previous play.

That matched the Big 12 record for rushing touchdowns held by 1998 Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams of Texas. The only other FBS quarterback with 27 rushing touchdowns in a season was Ricky Dobbs for Navy in 2009.

Klein finished with 42 yards on 24 carries, while completing 16 of 30 passes for 173 yards.

Arkansas' Tyler Wilson was 20 of 31 for 216 yards. Jarius Wright had three catches for 88 yards and a 45-yard touchdown.

The Cotton Bowl was the only non-BCS game with both teams in the top 10 of the Bowl Championship Series standings -- Arkansas came in sixth, Kansas State eighth. It also is the only bowl featuring the SEC vs. the Big 12, the top two conferences in the BCS computer rankings.

The Razorbacks didn't even get a first down until 12 1/2 minutes left in the first half when Dennis Johnson opened a drive with a 28-yard run. That drive ended with the second of Zach Hocker's three field goals, a 22-yarder.

K-State blocked the extra point and Nigel Malone returned it for two points.

It was 19-9 at halftime after Klein threw a 3-yard TD pass to Andrew McDonald with 26 seconds left in the first half. That score was set up after Wilson was sacked by Adam Davis and fumbled at the Hogs' 13.

▶ Game Notes

• The announced attendance was 70,242... There were an estimated 40,000 K-State fans in attendance, which ties for the second most in school history... The school record was 45,000 at the 1997 Fiesta Bowl, while there were an estimated 40,000 at the 1997 Cotton Bowl.

• Collin Klein made his 28th and final career start at quarterback, finishing his career with a 22-6 record to tie the school record for wins as a starting QB... Klein finished his career with a school-record 56 rushing touchdowns, while he is one of six players in Big 12 history with 50 or more career rushing scores and one of two quarterbacks to accomplish the feat... He also concluded his school record for career touchdown responsibility at 86.

• Wide receiver Chris Harper hauled in eight catches for 71 yards against his former team... Harper had five or more catches in five of his final seven games... He finished his K-State career with 123 catches to tie for seventh in school history.

• Arthur Brown registered nine tackles... He ended his senior campaign with 100 tackles, becoming the first Wildcat with 100 or more tackles in consecutive seasons since Josh Buhl in 2002 and 2003... Brown finished his K-State career with 201 tackles.

• Anthony Cantele connected on a 25-yard field goal... It was his 37th career field goal to tie for fourth in school history... Cantele was also true on two extra points to finish out his career with a school-record 92 consecutive extra points made.

OREGON WINS BATTLE OF TOP-10 TEAMS IN FIESTA BOWL

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- De'Anthony Thomas caught the opening kickoff, raced past Oregon's sideline and leaned his head into the end zone like a sprinter crossing the finish line.

The track meet had started and the fifth-ranked Ducks didn't look back after that. Triggered by Thomas' 94-yard return, Oregon bolted by No. 7 Kansas State, 35-17.

Teams that had that national title aspirations end on the same day, Oregon and Kansas State ended up in the desert for a marquee matchup billed as a battle of styles: The fast-flying Ducks vs. the execution-is-everything Wildcats.

Thomas followed his kickoff return with a 23-yard touchdown catch, finishing with 195 total yards. Kenjon Barner ran for 143 yards on 31 carries and scored on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Marcus Mariota in the second quarter. Mariota later scored on a 2-yard run in the third quarter, capped by an obscure 1-point safety that went in the Ducks' favor.

Even Oregon's defense got into the act, intercepting Collin Klein twice and holding him to 30 yards on 13 carries.

Thomas hit the Wildcats (11-2) again late in the first quarter, breaking a couple of tackles and dragging three defenders into the end zone for a catch-and-run TD that put the Ducks up 15-0.

Oregon followed a missed 40-yard field goal with a scoring drive late in the second quarter. Moving 77 yards in 46 seconds, the Ducks went up 22-10 at halftime after Mariota hit Barner on 24-yard TD pass.

Alejandro Maldonado hit a 33-yard field goal on Oregon's opening drive of the third quarter and Mariota capped a long drive with a 2-yard TD run. Kansas State's Javonta Boyd blocked the point-after attempt, but even that went wrong for the Wildcats: Chris Harper was tackled in the end zone for a bizarre 1-point safety that put Oregon up 32-10.

Kansas State needed a little time to get its wheels spinning on offense, laboring early before Klein scored on a 6-yard run early in the second quarter.

Klein kept the Wildcats moving in the quarter, though not toward touchdowns: Cantele hit a 25-yard field goal. Klein hit John Hubert on a 10-yard touchdown pass early in the fourth quarter, but all that did was cut Oregon's lead down to 32-17.
